Flying out of the storm in 4Q21

Booked a THB1.0b core loss in 3Q21, beating our estimate

Thai AirAsia (TAA, not listed, AAV holds a 55% stake) reported a 3Q21 net loss of THB3.8b. Excluding a THB2.1b FX loss and a THB0.1b derivative gain, TAA's core loss would be THB1.9b. As a result, AAV booked a 3Q21 core loss of THB1.0b, smaller than the 2Q21 core loss of THB1.3b, beating our estimate of a THB1.6b core loss and BBG's consensus estimate of a THB1.7b loss. 3Q21 revenue fell 68% q-q as the number of passengers carried decreased from 0.7m in 2Q21 to 0.1m in 3Q21. ASK also fell by 88% q-q, with a load factor of 75%. Expenses decreased by 33% due to lower fuel costs on lower fuel consumption and lower staff costs from the leave without pay and furlough schemes. 3Q21 operating profit and EBITDA remained negative.

Passengers carried could recover to 60-70% of pre-Covid in 2022

AAV expects to resume its domestic flight capacity at the pre-Covid level by Jan-22, while resuming 10% of its international flight capacity in 1Q22, then gradually increasing to 20% in 2Q22, 40% in 3Q22 and 50-60% in 4Q22. The first international route that AAV will resume is Maldives in Dec, and plans to resume its Cambodia route soon, as these two countries have similar border reopening policies as Thailand. AAV also plans to resume Singapore, Malaysia Vietnam, Hong Kong and India in the next step. As a result, its operating aircraft would increase to 51 from only 20 aircraft currently. Overall, AAV is targeting 13.5m passengers carried in 2022, or 61% of the pre-Covid level, while our forecast is slightly more bullish at 70% of the pre-Covid level.

Sufficient cashflow to support operations until restructuring plan

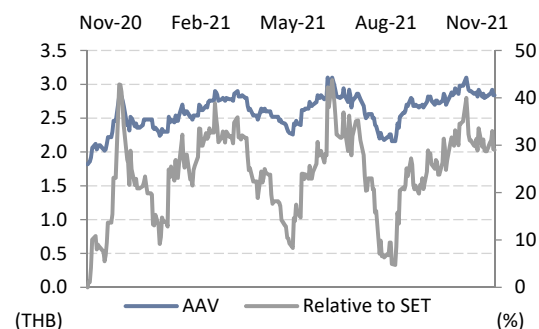

AAV expects the shareholder restructuring plan to be completed in 1Q22. It would receive proceeds of THB14b. Before that, AAV has prepared its cashflow liquidity, securing a bridging loan of THB1b, and is in the process of completing a sales and leaseback transaction for net proceeds of USD30m by 1Q21. It has also negotiated with lessors to restructure lease contracts that would lead to 15-20% lower lease payments vs existing terms, potentially improving its cost structure in the longer term.

Maintain forecast and TP

We maintain our forecast and TP of THB3.5/shr, based on 1.1x 2023E adjusted P/BV, in line with its 5-yr average of 1.2x. Our 2023E adjusted BV is THB41b, calculated from 2023E equity of THB22.3b and adding back a one-off core loss over 2020-21E of THB18.7b.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as $(\text{target price}^* - \text{current price}) / \text{current price}$.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.
