Booked a smaller core loss q-q of THB3.4b in 1QFY22

AOT reported a core loss of THB3.4b for 1QFY22 (vs the core loss of THB4.2b in 4QFY21), in line with our estimate. Including a THB1.0b provision for litigation liabilities arising from the consideration of the Central Administrative Court for the dispute regarding the logistic services contract in the free zone at Suvarnabhumi Airport, AOT's net loss was THB4.3b. Revenue grew by 59% q-q in 1QFY22, as domestic and international passenger volumes recovered to 42% and 4% of the pre-Covid levels in 1QFY22 (vs 5% and 1% in 4QFY21). Expenses were flat q-q. As a result, the operating profit margin remained negative.

Passenger recovery momentum to continue

We expect 2QFY22 operations to slightly improve from 1QFY22 as the domestic passenger volume has stayed at 46% of the pre-Covid level in Jan-22, and should continue to improve. We expect the domestic passenger volume to almost reach the pre-Covid level in April thanks to the Songkran festival. Meanwhile, the resumption of the Test & Go scheme should support the recovery of the international passenger volume. We expect the international passenger volume to gradually recover to 30-40% in 3QFY22 (April-March).

Maintaining passenger traffic assumptions

AOT is maintaining its international passenger assumption of 26.3m (31% of pre-Covid level) and domestic passenger assumption of 35.9m (62% of pre-Covid level) for FY22. This may imply that in AOT's view, the international passenger volume should accelerate over 3Q-4QFY22, as so far there were only c1.3m international passengers during Oct-21 to Jan-22. For its balance sheet update, AOT has cash on hand of THB8.7b as of 1QFY22 with THB25b credit facilities, while the capex for FY22 is cTHB5.5b and the cash burn is cTHB1.5b per month, which should continue to improve along with the passenger volume recovery.

Trading at an attractive valuation with a recovery lying ahead

AOT is trading at 28x FY24E P/E, lower than its 5-yr average of 38x. Note that we use FY24E to compare P/E multiples as this should be the first year that operations return to normal. A short-term catalyst would be an international passenger recovery from the resumption of Test & Go.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as $(\text{target price}^* - \text{current price}) / \text{current price}$.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.
