Quarterly losses continued in 4Q21

NEX posted a 4Q21 net loss (NL) of THB16m, up from an NL of THB20m in 3Q21, 5% below our forecast. It booked earnings of THB15m from e-buses as only 37 e-buses were delivered out of its 122 new e-bus orders in 4Q21, down from 70 e-buses in 3Q21, generating a gross profit of THB19m in 4Q21. There was also an estimated THB51m gross loss from its logistics business. We estimate that the 4Q21 NL was mainly incurred from NEX's fixed overhead expenses for its employees at THB11m per month, with an additional loss coming from NEX's new intercity bus operation, Nex Express (Bangkok-Nakornratchasima route), as a result of the Covid-19 lockdown.

Next catalyst is coming

We believe NEX's quarterly performance will turn around with a net profit (NP) of THB300m-400m in 2Q22, based on the delivery of 200-300 e-buses. 2Q22 should be NEX's first turnaround quarter under the new management team with its re-focus on e-bus and e-truck ventures. NEX is now likely to see up to 2,000-3,000 e-bus orders from the bidding for 77 bus lines, to be finalised within Mar-22.

One more quarter to recover in 1Q22

We project that NEX will see quarterly NP growth starting in 1Q22 onward from the earnings contribution from its manufacturing plant (via its 45% stake) and e-bus and e-truck sales. We expect NEX's quarterly net profit to be around THB0.3b-0.4b in 2Q22, and could range between THB0.3b-THB0.5b per quarter in 2022-23, driven by the sales of 1,000-2,000 e-buses and 1,000 e-trucks, based on management's guidance.

A good play on Thailand's e-bus and e-truck boom

We maintain BUY and our SoTP-based target price of THB26. We think NEX, via its JV with Energy Absolute (EA TB, BUY, TP THB122), is Thailand's leading player in the commercial EV segment (e-buses and e-trucks) thanks to its first-mover advantage to timely capitalise on the government's pro-EV policies and tax incentives. This should allow NEX-EA JV to capture market share and secure up to a 2,000 e-bus and 1,000 e-truck backlog in 2022.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as (target price* - current price) / current price.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.
