1Q22 results came as a surprise from lower ECL and staff cost

KTB reported a 1Q22 net profit of THB8,780m (+57% y-y, +78% q-q), which was higher than our forecast by 50% thanks mainly to a lower ECL and quarterly staff cost than anticipated. In our view, KTB did a great job on its cost side. Its credit cost plummeted to only 83 bps – a record low over the past eight years. KTB was able to control its asset quality effectively as its portfolio is comprised of 27% corporates, 21% government entities, and c25% government officials. These segments have been the least impacted by the Covid pandemic and geopolitical uncertainty. The bank's NPLs were relatively stable q-q, implying an NPL ratio of 3.34% vs 3.5% in 4Q21. Its OPEX also dropped by 4% y-y and 17% q-q following staff cost savings from retirement. However, KTB still had a poor revenue side. Its NIM slid to 2.41% due to a rise in the low-yield government segment. Its fee income also fell due to clients' changing behaviour toward increased digital platform use.

Lower provisions should support earnings throughout 2022

We expect KTB's 2Q22 net profit to surge y-y, owing to substantially lower provisions following its good asset quality control. This should completely offset lower fee income. We think this trend should continue throughout the rest of 2022. Note that its 2Q22 net profit might decline q-q as we think its credit cost will increase q-q following a gradual expansion to the retail client segment.

Earnings revisions to incorporate lower ECL and OPEX

We revise up our 2022-24E net profit by 15%/7%/5% to reflect our lower provision estimates along with the bank's better OPEX control. We expect its 2022 net profit to surge 25% y-y, supported by low provisions. However, 2023 net profit may increase by only 3% y-y as we still have a conservative credit cost assumption. We think its 2023 credit cost should increase y-y as the bank will resume its growth in the retail segment.

Maintain BUY with higher GGM-based TP of THB16.4

We reiterate our BUY call with a higher GGM-based TP of THB16.4 from THB15.5, as we think KTB should be one of the most resilient banks amid the high inflation environment. We also believe KTB will utilise its digital users' big data to generate top-line growth. Thus, we expect its net profit to increase at a 13% CAGR in 2022-24. Moreover, we think KTB's valuation is undemanding at 0.5x 2022E P/BV.

Investment thesis

We reiterate our BUY call with a higher GGM-based TP of THB16.4 from THB15.5, as we think KTB should be one of the most resilient banks amid the high inflation environment. We also believe KTB will utilise its digital users' big data to generate top-line growth. Thus, we expect its net profit to increase at a 13% CAGR in 2022-24. Moreover, we think KTB's valuation is undemanding at 0.5x 2022E P/BV.

Company profile

Krung Thai Bank began operations in 1966 and in 1989 was the first privatised state enterprise to be listed on the SET. At end-2019, KTB was the second largest Thai bank in terms of lending, and ranked fourth by total assets.

Catalysts

Potential share price catalysts for KTB include:

- Faster utilisation of big data to capture digital trends;
- Lower credit cost from a better-than-expected new NPL rate;
- Better operating cost control.

Risks to our call

Downside risks to our GGM-based TP are 1) prolonged economic sluggishness and further waves of the Covid-19 pandemic affecting loan growth and asset quality; 2) the impact of further interest rate cuts on NIM and potential new regulations from the Bank of Thailand on debt-servicing programs; and 3) an increase in OPEX due to aggressive digital investment.

Net profit and TP revisions

We revise up our net profit forecasts for 2022-24 by 15%/7%/5% to reflect our lower provision estimates along with the bank's better OPEX control.

1. We lower our credit cost estimates for 2022-24 to 100/105/105 bps from 128/125/122 bps to reflect KTB's efficient asset quality control and its strong provision cushion;
2. We lower our OPEX estimates for 2022-24 by 2%/3%/5% due mainly to the better-than-expected staff expense.

Disclaimer:

The disclosure of the Anti-Corruption Progress Indicators of a listed company on the Stock Exchange of Thailand, which is assessed by Thaipat Institute, is made in order to comply with the policy and sustainable development plan for the listed companies of the Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Thaipat Institute made this assessment based on the information received from the listed company, as stipulated in the form for the assessment of Anti-corruption which refers to the Annual Registration Statement (Form 56-1), Annual Report (Form 56-2), or other relevant documents or reports of such listed company. The assessment result is therefore made from the perspective of Thaipat Institute that is a third party. It is not an assessment of operation and is not based on any inside information. Since this assessment is only the assessment result as of the date appearing in the assessment result, it may be changed after that date or when there is any change to the relevant information. Nevertheless, FSS International Investment Advisory Company Limited does not confirm, verify, or certify the accuracy and completeness of the assessment results.

Note: Companies participating in Thailand's Private Sector Collective Action Coalition Against Corruption programme (Thai CAC) under Thai Institute of Directors (as of June 24, 2019) are categorised into: 1) companies that have declared their intention to join CAC, and; 2) companies certified by CAC.

Company	Ticker	Price	Rating	Valuation & Risks
Krung Thai Bank	KTB TB	THB 13.10	BUY	Downside risks to our GGM-based TP are 1) prolonged economic sluggishness and further waves of the Covid-19 pandemic affecting loan growth and asset quality; 2) the impact of further interest rate cuts on NIM and potential new regulations from the Bank of Thailand on debt-servicing programs; and 3) an increase in OPEX due to aggressive digital investment.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as $(\text{target price}^* - \text{current price}) / \text{current price}$.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.

Industry Recommendations

Overweight. The analyst expects the fundamental conditions of the sector to be positive over the next 12 months.

Neutral. The analyst expects the fundamental conditions of the sector to be maintained over the next 12 months.

Underweight. The analyst expects the fundamental conditions of the sector to be negative over the next 12 months.

Country (Strategy) Recommendations

Overweight (O). Over the next 12 months, the analyst expects the market to score positively on two or more of the criteria used to determine market recommendations: index returns relative to the regional benchmark, index sharpe ratio relative to the regional benchmark and index returns relative to the market cost of equity.

Neutral (N). Over the next 12 months, the analyst expects the market to score positively on one of the criteria used to determine market recommendations: index returns relative to the regional benchmark, index sharpe ratio relative to the regional benchmark and index returns relative to the market cost of equity.

Underweight (U). Over the next 12 months, the analyst does not expect the market to score positively on any of the criteria used to determine market recommendations: index returns relative to the regional benchmark, index sharpe ratio relative to the regional benchmark and index returns relative to the market cost of equity.
