Flattish earnings expected in 2Q22

- We expect ADVANC's core earnings in 2Q22 to be at THB6.4b (+0.8% q-q, -5.8% y-y).
- Positive view on TTTB and JASIF deal, but the key challenge is getting approval from JASIF's unitholders.
- Maintain BUY with the same TP of THB250; potential upside risk.

Expect flattish earnings q-q in 2Q22

We expect ADVANC's earnings in 2Q22 to amount to THB6.4b (+0.8% q-q, -5.8% y-y). Mobile service revenue should remain flat q-q, similar to enterprise revenue. Fixed broadband should also grow at a decelerating rate with the increase in out-of-home activities. We expect ADVANC's service revenue to be flat q-q at THB32.9b. For the cost side, we expect that costs should be maintained. There are some ups and downs in terms of cost: 1) higher electricity expense; 2) lower depreciation as some of its assets are fully depreciated; and 3) higher content cost.

Promising sign from tourist revenue

Revenue from the tourist segment has improved significantly. The company indicated that the revenue from this segment has recovered to almost 40% of the pre-Covid level, despite the number of tourist arrivals in Thailand remaining low. This is a positive sign that the revenue from this segment should continue to improve in 2H22 as tourist arrivals will likely improve in the following quarters. However, we expect that it will not be enough to offset the weak economic outlook in Thailand which could pressure mobile service demand. As a result, we maintain our view that the slowdown in the Thai economy could continue to hinder the recovery momentum of mobile revenue.

Positive view on TTTB and JASIF deal, but there is a key challenge

As stated in our latest ICT report, "Thailand ICT - FBB market consolidation, dated 4 Jul-22", we believe the investment worth over THB32.4b in Triple T Broadband (TTTB) and Jasmine Broadband Internet Infrastructure Fund (JASIF TB, NR) from Jasmine International (JAS TB, REDUCE, THB3.10) will be a good investment for ADVANC. However, there is a risk that JASIF's unitholders may not approve the transaction as they may receive a lower dividend yield going forward, despite receiving a longer lease contract. Hence, investors would do well to keep an eye on the EGM in Sep-22.

Maintain BUY with the same TP of THB250

We maintain BUY on ADVANC with the same TP of THB250 and note the potential upside risk from the JAS deal. Although there will likely be some pressure from the economic slowdown in the short term, we remain sanguine on ADVANC's earnings this year and next.

Investment thesis

ADVANC is the biggest mobile operator in Thailand with more than 45% of the market share. The company aims to be the number one 5G service provider. It also has the healthiest financial position in the sector, as well as a fair and consistent dividend yield at around 3.9% p.a.

We think the company has various catalysts waiting in the future, including 1) the potential to pay a higher dividend; 2) the benefit of lower competition in the mobile market after the amalgamation of True Corporation (TRUE TB, BUY, TP THB5.40) and Total Access Communication (DTAC TB, BUY, TP THB55.50) in 2022; 3) likely new projects with Gulf Energy Development (GULF TB, BUY, TP THB60); 4) growth in the enterprise sector; and 5) growth in its digital services business.

Company profile

ADVANC operates a telecommunications business, including mobile network services, fixed broadband services, and digital services.

Catalysts

- Upcoming 5G technology should be a key driver for ADVANC, which aims to be the number one 5G operator;
- Consistent earnings which could lead to a consistent dividend yield at around 3.5-4% p.a.;
- The expectation of less competition in the mobile market after the amalgamation of TRUE and DTAC.

Risks to our call

The key downside risks to our DCF-based TP are stronger-than-expected competition in the mobile market and the slower-than-expected adoption of 5G use cases.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as (target price* - current price) / current price.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.

Industry Recommendations

Overweight. The analyst expects the fundamental conditions of the sector to be positive over the next 12 months.

Neutral. The analyst expects the fundamental conditions of the sector to be maintained over the next 12 months.

Underweight. The analyst expects the fundamental conditions of the sector to be negative over the next 12 months.

Country (Strategy) Recommendations

Neutral (N). Over the next 12 months, the analyst expects the market to score positively on one of the criteria used to determine market recommendations: index returns relative to the regional benchmark, index sharpe ratio relative to the regional benchmark and index returns relative to the market cost of equity.
