A solid 2Q22 net profit of THB0.6b, up 107% q-q and 153% y-y

We expect SSP to continue to record a strong core net profit of THB298m in 2Q22, up 0.8% q-q and 27% y-y. Including a THB350m gain from the divestment of its solar farm in Japan, 2Q22 reported net profit should hit THB0.6b, up 107% q-q and 153% y-y. The key driver is the improving operations of its solar farms to offset the seasonally lower operations of its wind farms. The higher fuel tariff (Ft) by THB0.23/kWh will also help to boost the net profit from SSP's 40MW solar farm in Thailand.

Expect a series of strong quarterly net profits in 2H22-2024

SSP has continued to deliver strong quarterly net profits since 2Q21, posting above THB200m per quarter except for in 4Q21, which was diluted by extraordinary expenses and the lower-than-expected performance of its wind farms. Looking ahead, we expect SSP to deliver quarterly net profits of THB200m-250m, backed by the higher Ft for solar farms and additional net profits from its acquired biomass power plant assets and wind farms in Vietnam.

Key beneficiary of Vietnam's PDP 8

SSP is one of the few companies in Thailand for which we expect to see significant capacity growth from the soon-to-announce Power Development Plan 8 (PDP 8) by Vietnam, which has been delayed by over one year due to the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic. We expect SSP to secure up to a 48MW capacity for the wind farm Tra Vinh phase 2, adding to its existing 48MW wind farm Tra Vinh phase 1.

One of the most undervalued power growth plays in Thailand

We believe SSP is one of the most undervalued and overlooked plays by the market, given its strong and highly secured net profit growth outlook from its existing as well as newly acquired assets, its high ROE of 18%, and its attractive valuation, trading at only 8.7x 2022E P/E and 7.6x 2023E P/E against its high-quality growth trajectory. In addition, SSP, even as a small-cap power company, has a high possibility to secure a large capacity growth from Vietnam's PDP 8, which includes up to 100MW of wind farms, to bolster its operating wind farm Tra Vinh phase 1. We also expect SSP to pay a high dividend yield at 5.3% thanks to its strong operating cash flow to support the high dividend payout.

Investment thesis

Founded in 2010, Sermsang Power (SSP) is a producer and distributor of solar power to the Electricity Generating Authority of Thailand (EGAT). In June 2013, the company entered into a 40MW power purchase agreement with EGAT as a small power producer. SSP began operations at its first solar plant in 2015 with an adder rate of THB6.5/kWh for 10 years.

We project an earnings CAGR of 25.5% over 2020-23, driven by the commencement of several new overseas growth projects. We expect SSP's earnings growth to accelerate in the medium to long term, post start-up of its solar farms in Japan and wind farms in Vietnam in 2021-24. SSP has set up subsidiaries to explore solar rooftop opportunities and other business opportunities in Thailand, Japan, and Mongolia.

Company profile

Sermsang Power is a holding company investing in electricity generating businesses with major solar farm power assets in Thailand and Japan.

Catalysts

Higher utilisation rates of power plants and rising demand for electricity in Thailand, Japan, and Mongolia are key potential growth drivers.

Risks to our call

The downside risks to our SoTP-based TP for SSP include 1) a lower-than-expected demand for electricity in Thailand; 2) a lower crude price; and 3) project start-up delays.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as $(\text{target price}^* - \text{current price}) / \text{current price}$.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.
