Feedstock cost hike hurt 2Q22

- 2Q22 core loss was THB65m, down from NP of THB130m in 1Q22, due to a falling sales volume of ethanol and higher feedstock cost.
- We think BBGI's net profit should recover in 2H22 on the back of lower prices of CPO and cassava.
- Maintain BUY and our TP of THB15.

Lower sales and high feedstock cost turned 2Q22 into a net loss

BBGI's 2Q22 core loss was THB65m, down from a net profit (NP) of THB130m in 1Q22, due to a falling sales volume of ethanol and higher feedstock cost, missing our forecast by 35% and the Bloomberg consensus estimate by 40%. BBGI's EBITDA margin dropped to 2.2% in 2Q22 due to a lower sales volume of methyl ester (ME) caused by the government's biodiesel policy change from B10 to B5 and ethanol due to a feedstock shortage. BBGI's 2Q22 EBITDA plunged to THB74m as the sales volumes of ethanol and ME declined due to weak demand and rising feedstock prices.

Spikes in CPO and cassava prices wiped out earnings in 2Q22

The price of cassava jumped in 2Q22 due to higher imports for China to replace a shortage of corn used for ethanol production and animal feed. Similarly, the molasses price rose sharply due to the falling production of sugarcane. As a result, revenue plunged to THB3.4b in 2Q22, down 9% q-q and 4% y-y. Revenue from biodiesel was at THB2.7b, down 1% q-q but up 20% y-y, mainly due to the higher ME price on the spike in the crude palm oil (CPO) price, driven by Indonesia's ban on palm oil exports and the supply shortage due to the Russia-Ukraine war.

Bio-based revenue took off, but was still minuscule

Revenue from high value bio-based products took off at THB0.5m, coming from the sales of its pharmaceutical-grade hand-washing alcohol and food supplement products. BBGI intends to continue to boost its revenue from bio-based products in 2022-23 to gradually replace the low-margin and highly volatile ethanol and ME.

Maintain BUY and our TP THB15

We derive our value for BBGI using an SoTP valuation based on a one-year forward P/E, given the risks from regulations, demand, supply, price, and feedstock price. We think BBGI's net profit should recover in 2H22 on the back of lower prices of CPO and cassava following Indonesia's cancellation of the export ban on CPO and rising supplies of cassava and molasses in the coming seasons.

Disclaimer:

The disclosure of the Anti-Corruption Progress Indicators of a listed company on the Stock Exchange of Thailand, which is assessed by Thaipat Institute, is made in order to comply with the policy and sustainable development plan for the listed companies of the Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Thaipat Institute made this assessment based on the information received from the listed company, as stipulated in the form for the assessment of Anti-corruption which refers to the Annual Registration Statement (Form 56-1), Annual Report (Form 56-2), or other relevant documents or reports of such listed company. The assessment result is therefore made from the perspective of Thaipat Institute that is a third party. It is not an assessment of operation and is not based on any inside information. Since this assessment is only the assessment result as of the date appearing in the assessment result, it may be changed after that date or when there is any change to the relevant information. Nevertheless, FSS International Investment Advisory Company Limited does not confirm, verify, or certify the accuracy and completeness of the assessment results.

Note: Companies participating in Thailand's Private Sector Collective Action Coalition Against Corruption programme (Thai CAC) under Thai Institute of Directors (as of 26 October 2021) are categorised into: 1) companies that have declared their intention to join CAC, and; 2) companies certified by CAC.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as $(\text{target price}^* - \text{current price}) / \text{current price}$.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.
