3Q22 looking as right as rain

- Expect 3Q22 earnings to grow 7% q-q and 62% y-y to THB134m, led by higher non-Covid Thai and expat patient revenue.
- International patient revenue has exceeded pre-Covid, driven by expat patients; upside from fly-in patients which are still recovering.
- Maintain BUY with higher DCF-based TP of THB21/shr.

3Q22 revenue to hit a record high of THB1.0b

We expect revenue to grow by 5% q-q in 3Q22. Non-Covid Thai patient revenue should grow by 9% q-q on the high healthcare season in Thailand (rainy season). Covid revenue contributions should slow down from 13% of the pre-Covid level in 2Q22 to 8% in 3Q22. We estimate international patient revenue to jump by 22% q-q in 3Q22, driven by expat patients. SG&A should increase by 5% q-q as PR9 has raised costs to retain staff, especially nurses. The overall EBITDA margin should be flat q-q at 23% in 3Q22, leading to core profit growth of 7% q-q to THB134m – higher than the pre-Covid level by 51%.

Recovery of fly-in international patients is the next key driver

International patient revenue already exceeded the pre-Covid level by 20% in 2Q22, and we estimate that it exceeds pre-Covid by 32% in 3Q22. The key driver would be higher expat patient revenue.

Management estimates that contributions between fly-in patients and expat patients were at 50:50 in 2Q-3Q22, vs pre-Covid's 70:30. This suggests that there is room for the fly-in patient volume to increase to the pre-Covid level. Key fly-in patient market segments are from Myanmar and Cambodia. PR9 expects to capture fly-in Chinese patients next year when China reopens its borders. We expect revenue contributions from international patients to increase to 20-30% by 2024 from 13% in 2Q22.

Strong momentum to continue in 4Q22

We expect revenue growth momentum to continue in 4Q22, which should be the peak quarter this year, led by the Check-up Center, which patients tend to use in the last quarter of the year, and the Lasik Center, which patients use during long holidays. We estimate revenue to grow by 34% to THB4.0b in 2022, slightly higher than management's target of THB3.9b.

Revise up earnings; cheaper valuation than peers

We revise our 2022-24E core profit up by 11-15% to reflect PR9's strong business outlook, and derive a new DCF-based TP of THB21/shr. Under our coverage, PR9 should be one of healthcare stocks along with BDMS and BH that can deliver 3Q22 earnings growth q-q. Meanwhile, PR9's valuation is still attractive, trading at 24x 2023E P/E (vs its peers' average of 34x and 36-40x for BDMS and BH).

Investment thesis

PR9 is a standalone hospital that is known as a “value-for-money” hospital. It recently upgraded the hospital to include tertiary care with new specialist centres. One of the top contributors is the Kidney Transplant Institute, which is the only facility to be accredited by Joint Commission International (JCI) outside the US.

The hospital is in a growth phase, with its new building having opened in July 2020. The new building enables PR9 to capture new customer groups from its new specialist centres and gives it a higher IPD capacity.

The improving EBITDA margin and ROE should lead to its stock valuation re-rating, in our view.

Company profile

PR9 has been operating a private hospital since 1992.

Catalysts

Key potential growth drivers include 1) a higher Thai patient volume from new specialist centres; and 2) rising demand from medical tourists, especially patients from Cambodia, Laos, Myanmar and Vietnam (CLMV), as well as China.

Risks to our call

Downside risks to our DCF-based target price include 1) weak patient volumes following the economic slowdown; 2) regulatory risks from drug price and medical bill controls; and 3) higher-than-expected expenses from its new building.

Earnings sensitivity

- For every 1% increase in patient volume, we project 2022 earnings to rise by 2%, and vice versa, all else being equal.
- For every 1% increase in EBITDA margin, we project 2022 earnings to rise by 7%, and vice versa, all else being equal.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as $(\text{target price}^* - \text{current price}) / \text{current price}$.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.

Industry Recommendations

Overweight. The analyst expects the fundamental conditions of the sector to be positive over the next 12 months.

Neutral. The analyst expects the fundamental conditions of the sector to be maintained over the next 12 months.

Underweight. The analyst expects the fundamental conditions of the sector to be negative over the next 12 months.

Country (Strategy) Recommendations

Overweight (O). Over the next 12 months, the analyst expects the market to score positively on two or more of the criteria used to determine market recommendations: index returns relative to the regional benchmark, index sharpe ratio relative to the regional benchmark and index returns relative to the market cost of equity.

Neutral (N). Over the next 12 months, the analyst expects the market to score positively on one of the criteria used to determine market recommendations: index returns relative to the regional benchmark, index sharpe ratio relative to the regional benchmark and index returns relative to the market cost of equity.

Underweight (U). Over the next 12 months, the analyst does not expect the market to score positively on any of the criteria used to determine market recommendations: index returns relative to the regional benchmark, index sharpe ratio relative to the regional benchmark and index returns relative to the market cost of equity.
