In-line 3Q22 results

- In-line 3Q22 net profit of THB1.8b (+14% y-y, -4% q-q).
- Expect 4Q22 net profit to slightly increase y-y and q-q
- High dividend yield but low profit growth; maintain HOLD call.

3Q22: Strong loan growth and healthy asset quality as expected

TISCO reported an in-line 3Q22 net profit of THB1,771m (+14% y-y, -4% q-q). We see three positives from its results. First, TISCO benefitted from a low credit cost level of 23 bps in 3Q22 due to the excess provisions it set aside to survive uncertainties and its effective asset quality control. Its NPLs were relatively stable q-q in 3Q22, with a high level of 248%. Next, there was an uptick in its NIM to 5.13% from 5.04% in 2Q22 from a rise in its high-yield portfolios. Lastly, this was the first time that its loan volume increased strongly by 4.8% q-q from auto cash, used cars, SMEs and the corporate segment. On the negative side, its non-NII fell q-q. Although its fee income increased y-y and q-q, its non-NII was dragged down by a lower gain on investments from the unfavourable capital market.

Neutral view from meeting

At its latest analyst meeting, management stated that they still see no signs of significant asset deterioration. Thus, its credit cost in the short to medium term should be at a low level. As for loan growth, TISCO expects loans to increase at a slower rate in 4Q22 due to lower demand from its corporate and SME floorplan clients. Regarding its loan spread in 4Q22 and 2023, management believes it will be lower than the current level thanks to a rise in cost of funds. TISCO believes that most banks will not compete by raising deposits. Regarding the potential rate cap on new motorbike hire purchases (MHP) by the Office of the Consumer Protection Board, this might lead to slower growth for its MHP portfolio (2% of total port) in the first one to two years after the implementation. MHP operators might need to adjust their lending structure, e.g. lower commissions paid to dealers. We have a neutral view from the meeting.

Smoother ECL and improving loan volume should drive 4Q22

We expect TISCO's 4Q22 net profit to slightly increase y-y and q-q due to 1) a rise in its NII following an increase in loan volume and NIM thanks to stronger loan growth; and 2) lower ECL from sufficient provisions.

Maintain HOLD for dividend with 2023 GGM-based TP of THB94

We like TISCO due to its low asset quality risk and expected 8-9% p.a. dividend yield in 2022-24, but we think its lazy balance sheet strategy over the past couple of years could limit its 2023 net profit growth to 4% y-y vs the 2023E aggregate net profit growth of our covered banks at 10% y-y. Hence, we maintain HOLD and our GGM-based TP of THB94.

Investment thesis

We maintain TISCO as our least preferred stock in the banking sector. We think TISCO's bottom line could be slightly hurt by an interest rate upturn. Additionally, we think it is less attractive than Kiatnakin Bank (KKP TB, BUY, TP THB82) as its lazy balance sheet strategy over the past several years will likely hinder its growth once the economy recovers. However, we recommend HOLD for its potentially superior dividend yield at 8-9% p.a. in 2022-24 and low asset quality risk.

Company profile

TISCO was the first Thai investment bank (in 1969) and the first finance company to be upgraded to a commercial bank (in 2005). At present, TISCO is a financial group holding company with a sustainable development operating framework. TISCO's businesses are both retail banking and corporate banking.

Catalysts

Potential share price catalysts for TISCO include:

- A high-yield auto title loan volume recovery;
- A higher dividend payout ratio;
- Better operating cost control.

Risks to our call

Downside risks to our GGM-based TP are 1) prolonged economic sluggishness affecting loan growth and asset quality; and 2) the impact of new regulations from the Bank of Thailand. An upside risk to our GGM-based TP would be lower-than-expected policy rate hikes.

3Q22: Strong loan growth and healthy asset quality as expected

TISCO reported an in-line 3Q22 net profit of THB1,771m (+14% y-y, -4% q-q). We see three positives from its results. First, TISCO benefitted from a low credit cost level of 23 bps in 3Q22 vs 49 bps in 3Q21 due to the excess provisions it set aside to survive uncertainties and its effective asset quality control. Its NPLs were relatively stable q-q in 3Q22, implying an NPL ratio of 2.1%. Its coverage ratio remained at a high level of 248%. Second, there was an uptick in its NIM to 5.13% from 5.04% in 2Q22 following a rise in its high-yield portfolios. Lastly, this was the first time that its loan volume increased strongly by 4.8% q-q from auto cash, used cars, SMEs and the corporate segment. On the negative side, its non-NII fell q-q. Although its core fee income increased y-y and q-q, its non-NII was dragged down by a lower gain on investments from the unfavourable capital market conditions. Its 9M22 net profit accounts for 74% of our 2022 forecast.

3Q22 key highlights

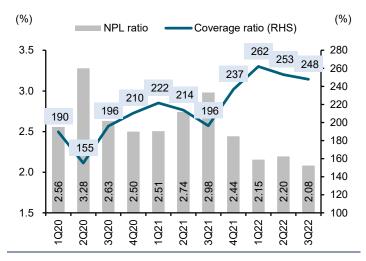

- NII rose by 4% y-y and 4% q-q due to a rise in loan volume by 4.3% y-y and 4.8% q-q, together with an improvement in its NIM to 5.13%;
- Net fee income increased by 12% y-y and 5% q-q, mainly from higher bancassurance fees following a rise in its loan volume;
- TISCO's loans under the forbearance program amounted to 5.0% of total loans, of which 1.5% were from the retail segment. These numbers moderately declined from 6.3% and 2.4% in 2Q22, respectively.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as (target price* - current price) / current price.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.
