3Q22 NP came as positive surprise

- Solid 3Q22 NP of THB8.5b due to higher NIM, stronger fee income and lower ECL.
- Expect strong earnings growth y-y in 4Q22.
- Raise 2022-24 NP estimate 4-8%, TP to THB21.2; maintain BUY.

3Q22 net profit beats expectations

Once again, KTB reported an outperforming quarterly net profit (NP), coming in at THB8,450m (+67% y-y, +1% q-q) in 3Q22 – higher than the BBG consensus estimate and our forecast by 9% thanks mainly to a higher NIM and fee income.

Higher NIM, strong fee income, lower ECL drove 3Q22 NP

We see three positives. First, KTB's NIM increased by 13 bps to 2.63% from a rise in loan yield due to the higher growth of its retail portfolio along with an increase in interbank and investment returns following policy rate hikes. Second, its fee income rose 13% y-y and 9% q-q from bancassurance and loan-related fees. Lastly, its credit cost plummeted y-y (stable q-q) to only 86 bps. KTB was able to control its asset quality effectively as its portfolio is comprised of 27% corporates, 19% government entities, and c25% government officials. These segments have been the least impacted by the Covid-19 pandemic and high inflation. The bank's non-performing loans (NPLs) were stable q-q, implying a stable q-q NPL ratio of 3.32%. As for OPEX, it has started to increase at a higher rate of 9% y-y and 14% q-q compared with past quarters due to a rise in IT expenses. However, as KTB did a good job on its revenue side, its cost to income ratio at 45% was still on target.

Solid outlook should continue in 4Q22

In 4Q22, we think KTB should deliver impressive y-y growth in its net profit, supported by 1) a lower ECL due to good asset quality control and a sufficient provision cushion; and 2) a higher NIM from rate hikes. However, its 4Q22 net profit might fall q-q, pressured by a rise in OPEX from seasonality and IT investments.

Maintain as our top pick with a higher 2023 TP at THB21.2

We revise up our net profit forecasts for 2022-24 by 8%/6%/4% mostly to reflect the higher NIM and lower credit cost assumptions, and increase our 2023 GGM-based TP to THB21.2, up from THB20.0. Amid the economic uncertainty, we see KTB as a safe place to invest based on its lower-than-peers downside risk of asset deterioration thanks to its concentrated low-risk government and corporate portfolio. We think KTB should ride the economic upturn, both from the monetisation of its Pao Tang app and as one of the top beneficiaries of rising interest rates.

Investment thesis

We reiterate our BUY call and maintain KTB as one of our top picks. Amid economic uncertainty, we see KTB as a safe place to invest based on its lower-than-peers downside risk of asset deterioration thanks to its concentrated low-risk government and corporate portfolio. We also think it should ride the economic upturn from the monetisation of its Pao Tang app and its position as one of the banks most likely to benefit from a rising interest rate environment. Moreover, its valuation looks attractive at 0.6x 2023E P/BV vs its 8.9% 2023E ROE.

Company profile

Krung Thai Bank began operations in 1966 and in 1989 was the first privatised state enterprise to be listed on the SET. At end-2021, KTB was the largest Thai bank in terms of lending, and ranked third by total assets.

Net profit and TP revisions

We revise up our net profit forecasts for 2022-24 by 8%/6%/4% mostly to reflect the higher NIM and lower credit cost assumptions. Details are listed below:

- 1) We increase our 2022/23/24 NIM assumptions to 2.54%/2.59%/2.63% from 2.43%/2.51%/2.58% based on the higher expected loan and investment yield;
- 2) We lower our credit cost assumptions in 2022/23/24 to 86/87/87 bps from 87/89/89 bps due to KTB's healthy asset quality and sufficient provision cushion.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as (target price* - current price) / current price.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.
