BUY

Look ahead to strong NP in 4Q22

- THANI posted a 3Q22 net profit of THB453m, 8% below our expectation due to a high ECL. We have limited concerns over its asset quality. Its NPLs were relatively stable q-q in 3Q22.
- Solid outlook should continue in 4Q22, in our view.
- We maintain THANI as one of our top picks with a 2023 GGM-based TP of THB5.2 due to its superior asset quality control and undemanding valuation.

3Q22 net profit missed on higher ECL

THANI posted a 3Q22 net profit of THB453m (+13% y-y, -8% q-q), which was 8% below our forecast due to a higher ECL than expected. Its 9M22 net profit accounts for 72% of our 2022 forecast.

Solid NIM and decent loan growth in 3Q22

THANI set a higher credit cost in 3Q22 of 93 bps from 56 bps in 2Q22. However, we have limited concerns over its asset quality as its NPLs were relatively stable q-q, with an implied NPL ratio of 2.3%. On top of that, THANI's coverage ratio remained at a high level of 117% vs its target of 85-90%. On the positive side, its loan volume continued to increase by 8% y-y and 2% q-q following the resumption of business activities. Its loan yield also rose 5 bps q-q to 6.78% from an increase in the rate charged to its clients following the interest rate uptrend.

Strong earnings growth should continue in 4Q22

We expect THANI's 4Q22 net profit to rise y-y and q-q, on the back of 1) healthy asset quality, which should result in continued low provisions; and 2) the high season of truck lending, which suggests stronger new lending and loan growth.

Maintain BUY with a 2023 GGM-based TP of THB5.2

We reiterate our BUY call with an unchanged GGM-based TP of THB5.2. THANI is one of our top picks in the diversified financial sector. We think THANI will be able to manage the impact from potential rate hikes and high inflation as it steps back into loan expansion mode. We believe its net profit should gradually increase y-y in 4Q22 and by 11% in 2023. In our view, its share price still has not reflected the improving performance that we expect in the coming quarters. THANI's valuation is undemanding at 11.4x 2023E P/E and 1.8x 2023E P/BV.

3Q22 net profit missed on higher ECL

THANI posted a 3Q22 net profit of THB453m (+13% y-y, -8% q-q), which was 8% below our forecast due to a higher ECL than expected. Its 3Q22 credit cost increased to 93 bps from 56 bps in 2Q22. Its loan yield also rose 5 bps q-q to 6.78% from an increase in the rate charged to its clients following the interest rate uptrend.

3Q22 key highlights

- Loan volume increased 8% y-y and 2% q-q following the resumption of business activities.
- Its NIM slightly increased to 5.05% from 5.01%, due to 1) a rise in its loan yield; and 2) efficient cost of funds control.
- OPEX surged significantly by 40% y-y and 9% q-q due to an increase in debt collection expenses. Its cost to income ratio remained at a high level of 23.4%, up from 17.3% in 3Q21.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as $(\text{target price}^* - \text{current price}) / \text{current price}$.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.
