Positive outlook from Taiwan site visit

- Taiwanese government has set a renewable power capacity target of 29.7GW by 2025, of which 20GW would come from solar power.
- We believe BCPG's 480MW solar farm project on former fish farm land will be one of its key earnings drivers in 2023 onward.
- We maintain BUY with our TP of THB13.

Site visit in Taiwan prompts a more positive outlook

We return from our site visit in Taiwan with a positive view on BCPG's 480MW solar project. Taiwan is planning an energy transition by maximising renewable energy, decommissioning nuclear and thermal power, and establishing a zero-carbon fuel supply system. The Taiwanese government has set a renewable power capacity target of 29.7GW by 2025, consisting of 20GW from solar power, 6.5GW from wind power, 2.15GW from hydropower and 1.05GW from others. Taiwan has grown its solar capacity from 1.25GW in 2016 to 8.9GW as of August 2022, located mostly in the south-central region of Taiwan.

Solar farm growth in Taiwan

BCPG's 480MW solar farm project in Taiwan will be both ground mounted and built on former fish farm land, with an estimated investment cost of THB70m/MW, a capacity factor of 16-17%, a feed-in-tariff of THB5.2-5.6/kWh, and a 20-year power purchase agreement (PPA) with Taiwan Power Company – a state-owned enterprise managing electricity production and distribution in Taiwan. Currently, BCPG has secured enough land for 219MW, which is awaiting PPA and construction permit approval. The company is making efforts to secure additional land for another 210MW. BCPG expects to start its first commercial operation date (COD) for 70MW in 2023.

Taiwan's solar farms should partly fill the earnings gap

We believe BCPG's 480MW solar farm project will be one of its key earnings drivers in 2023 onward, based on 1) Taiwan's shift toward greener energy, with renewable power expected to contribute 20% of the total capacity in 2025, then increase to 60-70% by 2050; and 2) the net profit addition from the expanded solar capacity in Taiwan should offset the expected earnings decline in 2022-24, potentially adding THB0.5b once the full capacity of 480MW CODs by 2025. We project BCPG's earnings contributions from existing solar farms to fall by THB2b in 2022-24 as a result of the THB8/kWh adder expirations of its 118MW farms.

Upside is rising

We maintain BUY with our TP of THB13. We think BCPG's clear strategic goal to grow its capacity to up to 2.9GW by 2026, up from 1.3GW in 2022, post divestment of its geothermal assets, will be a key catalyst to fill up the earnings gap from its adder expirations in 2021-24.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as (target price* - current price) / current price.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.
