Better-than-expected 4Q22 results

- DTAC reported its core profit in 4Q22 at THB478m (-4% q-q, -18% y-y), better than the BBG consensus expectation of THB371m.
- We have some concern about DTAC's mobile revenue after losing postpaid subs continuously, but like the company's cost control.
- Maintain BUY with the same TP of THB55.50.

4Q22 results were better than the market expected

DTAC reported its core profit in 4Q22 at THB478m (-4% q-q, -18% y-y), better than Bloomberg consensus expectation of THB371m. The key driver was from the change in the useful life of DTAC's assets from seven to 10 years. This will also continue in 2023 and should save the company costs of about THB2.8b-2.9b. Moreover, DTAC achieved a 9% y-y reduction in its OPEX in 4Q22 due to automation and digitisation.

Continuous decline in postpaid subs continues to be our concern

Mobile subscribers in 4Q22 stood at 21.16m (+0.5% q-q, +8.2% y-y) thanks to the recovery in the tourism sector. However, we see that postpaid subs continued to drop by 0.6% q-q, declining for two consecutive quarters for the first time in the past two years. Moreover, blended average revenue per user (ARPU) fell to THB217 in 4Q22 vs THB222 in 3Q22. This was due to the lower proportion of postpaid subs, while ARPU for both postpaid and prepaid also continued to decline. As a result of these issues, DTAC's mobile revenue continued to decline to THB13.4b, recorded as the all-time lowest quarterly revenue.

Amalgamation timeline recap

The next step in the amalgamation process is on 17 Feb-23, which will be the last trading day for DTAC and True Corporation (TRUE TB, BUY, TP THB5.40) – both shares will be suspended from 20 Feb-23 until 2 Mar-23 (9 days). A joint shareholder meeting will be held on 22 Feb-23. 3 Mar-23 will be the first trading day of the Mergerco under the ticker "TRUE".

Maintain BUY with the same TP of THB55.50

We believe that after Mergerco shares start trading on 3 Mar-23, there is a chance that the speculation effect will hit the share price, similar to Bangkok Expressway and Metro (BEM TB, BUY, TP THB11.50), the merger company formed in 2016. Despite the minimal benefit from cost optimisation, BEM's share price jumped significantly in 1H16 from THB5.5 from its listing on the SET in Jan-16 to THB6.90 (+25%), while there has been no significant change to its bottom line yet. Therefore, we believe that DTAC's and TRUE's share prices have a key support catalyst in 1H23. Maintain BUY recommendation on DTAC with the same TP of THB55.50. Note that at this moment, there is no longer a difference in the conversion ratio between DTAC and TRUE.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as $(\text{target price}^* - \text{current price}) / \text{current price}$.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.
