No catalyst but cheap valuation

- 4Q22 net profit of THB452m (-34% q-q, +733% y-y) was in line our estimate. GFPT's 2022 profit hit a record high at THB2.04b.
- Net profit likely peaked in 2022, but 2023 profit should still be substantially higher than the pre-Covid level.
- Maintain our BUY call on inexpensive valuation.

In-line 4Q22 net profit

GFPT reported a 4Q22 net profit of THB452m (-34% q-q, +733% y-y), in line with our estimate. Excluding an FX loss of THB53m and a derivative gain of THB84m, the company's core profit was equal to THB421m (-43% q-q, +30% y-y). The q-q drop was from the low season and the declining chicken price. The chicken export volume was 8,700 tonnes (-1.1% q-q, +16% y-y), thanks to the consumption recovery in Japan and China. GFPT's 2022 net profit hit a record high at THB2.04b (+9.8x y-y), while 4Q22 was its highest-ever fourth-quarter profit.

Negative view on 1Q23 profit

In the short term, we expect 1Q23 net profit to drop q-q and y-y due to the high base from last year. The contra-seasonal q-q drop should be due to 1) a continued decline in the domestic chicken price; 2) a lower export selling price q-q as EU customers renegotiate prices following the decrease in freight container charges; and 3) higher prices for raw materials. In addition, the average 1QTD chicken carcass price at THB20 per kg (-6% q-q) could negatively affect GFPT's domestic revenue and GFN's operations.

Maintain 2023 forecast for lower y-y earnings

Management's 2023 outlook includes 1) revenue growth of only 2%-3% y-y due to lower domestic and export chicken prices; 2) a lower gross margin at 14%-15%, down from 15.7% in 2022; and 3) SG&A to sales at 8.5%-9%. Our 2023 assumptions are in line with management's guidance. Hence, we maintain our 2023 net profit forecast of THB1.65b (-19.2% y-y). We think GFPT's net profit has likely peaked in 2022, but its 2023 profit should still be substantially higher than the pre-Covid level.

Maintain BUY on inexpensive valuation

We maintain our TP of THB18, based on 13.7x 2023E P/E. While there is no apparent share price catalyst in the short term, we think GFPT's strength is its very inexpensive valuation, with its shares currently trading at only 9.6x 2023E P/E. Furthermore, GFPT has announced a 2022 DPS of THB0.2, implying a dividend yield of 1.6%. Therefore, we maintain our BUY call.

Investment thesis

GFPT targets organic growth through expanding its chicken processing capacity, supported by continued growth in its vertically integrated chicken production operation that includes grandparent, parent, and broiler chicken farms. In the next 1-2 years, GFPT plans to double its chicken processing capacity to 300,000 tonnes/year by building new slaughterhouses. We have a positive view on the 2023 chicken export recovery from the low base last year. Although we estimate that the THB/USD exchange rate will strengthen to THB33 from THB35 in 2022, GFPT should see a limited impact from the stronger THB due to fully natural hedging. In addition, we think GFPT's share price is inexpensive, trading at only 9.6x 2023E P/E, below its five-year historical average.

Company profile

GFPT operates a vertically integrated poultry business covering feed production, grandparent farms, breeder farms, broiler farms, the production and distribution of chicken meat, cooked chicken products, and other chicken-related products under its own and customers' brands for both domestic and export markets. In 2022, GFPT had a chicken processing capacity of 150,000 tonnes/year and a cooked chicken product capacity of 30,000 tonnes/year.

Catalysts

Potential catalysts for GFPT's earnings growth in 2023 are 1) revenue growth driven by a chicken export recovery; 2) a higher-than-expected chicken price; and 3) declining raw material costs.

Risks to our call

Downside risks to our P/E-based TP include 1) a slower-than-expected consumption recovery; 2) high volatility in chicken and raw material prices; 3) a stronger-than-expected THB; and 4) a minimum wage increase and/or a labour shortage.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as $(\text{target price}^* - \text{current price}) / \text{current price}$.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.
