1Q25 earnings dropped, but beat our estimate

Highlights

- SIRI reported a 1Q25 net profit of THB814m (-35% q-q, -38% y-y), above our forecast and BBG's consensus estimate by 26-36% due to higher-than-expected other income. Excluding gains from land sales to its two JV projects worth THB188m (after tax), the core profit equaled THB626m (-48% q-q, -43% y-y) in 1Q25, the lowest in 11 quarters.
- The q-q and y-y plunge was mainly due to lower transfers worth THB5.6b (-38% q-q, -37% y-y), split 72:28 between low-rises and condos. Low-rise transfers dropped to THB4b (-37% q-q, -42%y-y) due to a lower backlog and fewer low-rise launches. Meanwhile, condo transfers were at THB1.6b (-41% q-q, -22% y-y) since SIRI completed three smaller newly built condos.
- Its 1Q25 property gross margin recovered to 30.1% from 27.7% in 4Q24 due to effective cost control and fewer price promotions, but was down from 34.8% in 1Q24, pressured by intense competition and project mix.
- SG&A to revenue increased to 24.5% in 1Q25 (vs 21.1% in 4Q24 and 21.8% in 1Q24) due to a greater drop in revenue, while financing costs were down q-q but up y-y, as all hotels resumed operations in 4Q24, along with the interest rate hikes.
- Share of profits from its JVs amounted to THB120m in 1Q25, slightly increasing 2% y-y, but dropping 69% q-q due to no newly built condos, compared to two new completed condos in 4Q24.

Outlook

- 1Q25 core profit accounted for 15% of our full-year estimate. Overall, the property market should remain dull in 2Q25 due to the impact of the earthquake and the sluggish economy. We expect SIRI's 2Q25 earnings to drop y-y, but gradually recover q-q, supported by two newly built condos with a combined value of THB2.6b and an average take-up rate of 57%, as well as a higher value of new low-rise launches.
- We maintain our 2025 core profit forecast of THB4.2b (-14% y-y). We also retain our TP at THB1.50 and reiterate our HOLD call.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as (target price* - current price) / current price.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.

Industry Recommendations

Overweight. The analyst expects the fundamental conditions of the sector to be positive over the next 12 months.

Neutral. The analyst expects the fundamental conditions of the sector to be maintained over the next 12 months.

Underweight. The analyst expects the fundamental conditions of the sector to be negative over the next 12 months.

Country (Strategy) Recommendations

Overweight (O). Over the next 12 months, the analyst expects the market to score positively on two or more of the criteria used to determine market recommendations: index returns relative to the regional benchmark, index sharpe ratio relative to the regional benchmark and index returns relative to the market cost of equity.

Neutral (N). Over the next 12 months, the analyst expects the market to score positively on one of the criteria used to determine market recommendations: index returns relative to the regional benchmark, index sharpe ratio relative to the regional benchmark and index returns relative to the market cost of equity.

Underweight (U). Over the next 12 months, the analyst does not expect the market to score positively on any of the criteria used to determine market recommendations: index returns relative to the regional benchmark, index sharpe ratio relative to the regional benchmark and index returns relative to the market cost of equity.
