Steady now, stronger later

- Expect 2Q25 core profit in 2Q25 to soften slightly to THB4.1b, mainly due to sluggish revenue from the hotel and property units.
- 1H25 core profit may be flat y-y. New projects should drive 2H25 momentum.
- Valuation is compelling at 13.3x 2025E P/E (-1.6 SD). BUY maintained.

Sluggish residential and hotel segments weigh on 2Q25E profit

We expect CPN's core profit in 2Q25 to soften slightly to THB4.1b (-2.2% q-q, -1.6% y-y), mainly due to weaker revenue contributions from the hotel segment – particularly in Pattaya, where a decline in Chinese tourist arrivals has impacted performance - as well as continued sluggishness in the residential property business. We estimate the revenue from residential property (5% of total revenue) to fall 2.4% g-g and 70.0% v-v to THB587m, reflecting subdued purchasing power, high household debt, and continued tight lending conditions from financial institutions. Meanwhile, property gross margin should decline to 29.0%, below the 34%-35% average seen during 2023-24.

Retail resilience and cost control should support earnings

Rental income from shopping malls, despite entering the low season, should remain stable q-q and grow modestly by 4.0% y-y to THB10.6b. The gross margin for this segment should remain high at around 60.0%. similar to 1Q25. However, this strong performance is insufficient to fully offset potential weakness in the hotel and residential property segments. As a result, we estimate the overall gross margin to soften slightly to 58.4%, down from a record high of 59.1% in 1Q25. Nonetheless, efficient cost management should help maintain core profit above THB4.0b for a sixth consecutive quarter.

New projects to drive 2H25 momentum

We expect core profit in 1H25 to remain broadly flat y-y at THB8.4b, accounting for 48% of our full-year forecast. Although the residential property segment remains sluggish and schedules no new condominium transfers until year-end, this segment contributes only around 3% of CPN's total gross profit. Looking into 2H25, CPN plans to launch two new malls - Central Park (3Q25) and Central Krabi (4Q25) - as well as one office building in 3Q25. The hotel business should improve in 4Q25, in line with seasonal trends. We maintain our earnings forecast.

Proven resilience, attractive valuation, reiterate BUY

CPN has weathered multiple economic cycles and external shocks, yet its business remains fundamentally strong and continues to grow. At a 2025E P/E of 13.3x, or -1.6 SD below a more-than-seven-year historical average, the valuation appears highly attractive. We maintain our BUY rating with a TP of THB73 (DCF, (WACC 7.4%, LTG 2.5%).

Investment thesis

CPN's 2Q25 core profit should soften slightly to THB4.1b due to weak hotel and residential segments, particularly in Pattaya. Rental income should remain resilient with a high gross margin (~60%), helping stabilise earnings. Overall gross margin may dip to 58.4% from a record 59.1% in 1Q25, but efficient cost control should support consistent profitability.

1H25 profit may come in flat y-y at THB8.4b and account for 48% of our full-year forecast. New mall and office openings in 2H25 should drive growth momentum. The hotel unit is expected to improve seasonally in 4Q25. Residential should remain a small contributor (3% of profit), limiting downside risk.

Valuation is compelling at 13.3x 2025E P/E (-1.6 SD). We reiterate our BUY call at a TP of THB73.

Catalysts

Key potential catalysts include 1) NLA expansion with new shopping malls; 2) effective cost control or the ability to pass on increased costs to tenants; and 3) the success of its housing projects.

Risks to our call

Key downside risks to our DCF-derived TP are deviations from our estimates on rental and occupancy rates, returns on its new investments, capex, and interest rates.

Earnings sensitivity

- For every 5% increase in rental rates, we project 2025 earnings to rise by 3%, and vice versa, all else being equal.
- For every 1% increase in occupancy rate, we project 2025 earnings to rise by 1%, and vice versa, all else being equal.
- For every 1% increase in SG&A to sales, we project 2025 earnings to drop by 2.8%, and vice versa, all else being equal.

RECOMMENDATION STRUCTURE

Stock ratings

Stock ratings are based on absolute upside or downside, which we define as (target price* - current price) / current price.

BUY (B). The upside is 10% or more.

HOLD (H). The upside or downside is less than 10%.

REDUCE (R). The downside is 10% or more.

Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on market price and the formal recommendation.

* In most cases, the target price will equal the analyst's assessment of the current fair value of the stock. However, if the analyst doesn't think the market will reassess the stock over the specified time horizon due to a lack of events or catalysts, then the target price may differ from fair value. In most cases, therefore, our recommendation is an assessment of the mismatch between current market price and our assessment of current fair value.

Industry Recommendations

Overweight. The analyst expects the fundamental conditions of the sector to be positive over the next 12 months.

Neutral. The analyst expects the fundamental conditions of the sector to be maintained over the next 12 months.
