- Russia-Ukraine talks end with no cease-fire BANGKOK POST: ISTANBUL: Ukraine and Russia failed to clinch a cease-fire in talks that ended in Turkey on Tuesday, with Moscow saying it will reduce military operations in areas where its forces are being pushed back and Kyiv calling for security guarantees from members of the European Union (EU) and North Atlantic Treaty Organization (Nato). Ukraine's negotiators said that they were seeking security guarantees for areas outside of Russian-controlled Crimea and separatist-held territories. Ukrainian negotiator Mykhailo Podolyak said that Kyiv has offered to discuss status of Crimea, which was seized by Russia in 2014 and has been occupied ever since.
- Thailand plans to sell up to B265 govt bonds in April-June BANGKOK POST: The government plans to sell up to 265 billion baht ($7.86 billion) of government bonds in the April-June period as part of debt management plans, according to the Finance Ministry. The baht-denominated bonds will be sold domestically.
- BMA: No powder smearing, foam parties during Songkran, Songkran celebrations under Covid-free setting allowed BANGKOK POST: The Bangkok Communicable Disease Committee has decided to prohibit powder smearing and foam parties during the Songkran festival next month. After chairing the committee's meeting on Tuesday, Bangkok Metropolitan Administration (BMA) permanent secretary Khajit Chatchawanich said that Songkran celebrations could go ahead, but all related activities must follow the rules and regulations set by the Centre for Covid-19 Situation Administration (CCSA) and signed by Prime Minister Prayut Chan-o-cha. The meeting had resolved to allow traditional water sprinkling under the Covid-free setting, but alcohol consumption in organising venues will not be permitted, he said.
- Songkran traffic plan ready BANGKOK POST: About 80,000 police will be on duty nationwide to try and ease traffic congestion and deal with road accidents during next month's Songkran festival holiday. Pol Gen Damrongsak Kittiprapas, deputy national police chief, on Tuesday said the traffic management plan had been completed for the April 11-17 holiday, when people head to their home provinces for the annual festival. Pol Gen Damrongsak said 6.7 million cars were expected to be on the roads for the holiday, with April 12-13 and April 16-17 being the peak days for outbound and inbound traffic. About 80,000 officers would be on duty.
- Deal opens up job market in Saudi Arabia BANGKOK POST: Thai and Saudi Arabian labour ministers have signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) on the export of Thai labour that includes ensuring good conditions for workers in the Gulf state. Labour Minister Suchart Chomklin met Human Resources and Social Development (HRSD) Minister Ahmad Sulaiman Al Rajhi to attend the signing ceremony in Riyadh on Monday, a source said. The signing ceremony is seen as another important step in the restoration of bilateral relations between the two countries after the relationship turned sour 30 years ago. Prior to then, Saudi Arabia was the largest labour market for Thai workers.
- Subsidy on premium diesel revoked BANGKOK POST: The cabinet on Tuesday approved revoking the subsidy on premium diesel used in luxury cars, effective from April, in a move to save on budget expenses. Rachada Dhnadirek, deputy government spokeswoman, said the cabinet's move also aims to reduce the financial burden on the state Oil Fund, which currently subsidises the diesel price at 8 baht per litre. According to a recent report by the Energy Ministry presented to the cabinet, the Oil Fund paid an average of 7.25-7.6 billion baht per month in subsidies to maintain the retail price of diesel at 30 baht per litre from January to February, a price still considered relatively high. As a result, the fund was 29.3 billion baht in the red as of March 13. The cabinet then approved lifting the borrowing limit on March 15 for the state Oil Fund to allow for management flexibility, a move that offers the government more room to cope with surging fuel prices caused by the Russia-Ukraine conflict.

Corporate news

- Ministry to postpone tax on stock transactions BANGKOK POST: The Finance Ministry expects to postpone the plan to slap a financial transaction tax on individual stock investors for a certain period because of unfavourable economic conditions, says permanent secretary Krisada Chinavicharana. He said while the ministry stands ready to impose the tax, Thailand is struggling with the double whammy of the prolonged pandemic and the Russia-Ukraine war. The financial transaction tax applicable for share sales by individual investors trading on the Stock Exchange of Thailand has been on the books for around 30 years, but has always been waived to support market development. Earlier Finance Minister Arkhom Termpittayapaisith said the plan to end this tax waiver on share sales from the local bourse should help to expand the tax base and garner additional revenue for national development.
- SCB sees stagflation for Thailand economy, War, inflation make for fragile recovery BANGKOK POST: Thailand's economy has gone into stagflation because of a fragile recovery and surging price hikes, says an economist at the Economic Intelligence Center (EIC), a research unit under Siam Commercial Bank (SCB). The EIC downgraded its 2022 economic growth forecast for Thailand to 2.7% from 3.2%. The revision was attributed to the Russia-Ukraine war, which sent energy and commodity prices soaring. Thailand's annual average headline inflation rate is expected to jump to a 14-year high of 4.9% this year, rising significantly from a previous forecast of 1.6%, said Yunyong Thaicharoen, SCB's chief wholesale banking officer and an economist at the EIC. Under a base-case scenario that sees the Ukraine war ending in the second half of this year, the Brent crude oil price would be at an average of US$110 per barrel this year.
- Fertiliser supply adequate for peak plantation season BANGKOK POST: Local fertiliser traders and suppliers have confirmed there will be sufficient fertiliser supply during the peak plantation season starting in May, while pledging to step up imports from Saudi Arabia to meet domestic demand. According to Wattanasak Sur-iam, director-general of the Internal Trade Department who chaired yesterday's joint meeting with representatives of three fertiliser associations, the private sector insists Thailand will not face any fertiliser shortages, with domestic supply sufficient to support the country's new annual crops scheduled for plantation in May. "Entrepreneurs also pledged to accelerate fertiliser imports from new supply sources, especially Saudi Arabia, to offset the impact from the war between Russia and Ukraine," he said.
- Thai Airways sells Airbus seats for B1m BANGKOK POST: Cash-strapped Thai Airways International earned over 1 million baht in under a minute on Tuesday by selling passenger seats stripped from its decommissioned aircraft. Thirty pairs of seats in different colours, including the airline's motif purple and pink, were quickly snapped up during a live-streaming session on the Facebook page TG Warehouse Sale. The economy class seats, on sale at 35,000 baht a pair, were sold out in less than a minute. The sale raked in 1,050,000 baht in total. According to the airline, the seats, which have been thoroughly cleaned, come equipped with seat belts. They can recline to up to 15 centimetres if they are fixed to the floor and 10cm otherwise. They are due to be delivered to buyers in early May. They were taken from a decommissioned Airbus A330-300. THAI is going through financial restructuring in the Central Bankruptcy Court. It posted a 55.11-billion-baht net profit last year on 81.52 billion baht in revenue and a 19.70-billion-baht operating loss.
- Russians also have right to travel despite Ukraine, says Emirates BANGKOK POST: Emirates President Tim Clark said the Russian people have every right to continue travelling regardless of sanctions on the economy, defending the Gulf carrier's maintenance of regular services despite the invasion of Ukraine. Emirates will carry on operating to Russia for as long as it is told to do so by its owner, the government of Dubai, Clark told Bloomberg Television in an interview on Tuesday. The airline currently serves Moscow twice daily and St Petersburg once a day, linking the cities with its vast global network via a stop in the Gulf state.
- World's longest passenger flight plans to avoid Russian skies BANGKOK POST: Cathay Pacific Airways plans to reroute its New York-Hong Kong service to avoid Russian airspace, in what would be the world's longest commercial passenger flight by distance. It will take about 17 hours. The airline plans to fly from John F. Kennedy International Airport over the Atlantic Ocean, the UK, southern Europe and central Asia, according to a memo to Cathay flight staff seen by Bloomberg News. The distance of 16,618 kilometres (10,326 miles) would surpass Singapore Airlines' New York service, which takes about 17-and-a-half hours to cover 15,349km, FlightRadar24 data show. A spokeswoman for Cathay said Airbus SE's A350-1000 is capable of operating the route, which would typically fly over the Arctic and through Russian airspace. Many Asian airlines are avoiding Russia due to the conflict in Ukraine.
- Vietnam's Q1 GDP growth tops 5% BANGKOK POST: HANOI: Vietnam's gross domestic product grew 5.03% in the first quarter from a year earlier, official data showed on Tuesday, as the Southeast Asian country reopened more parts of its economy after relaxing coronavirus restrictions. The pace of economic growth beat the 4.72% recorded in the first quarter last year and compared with 5.22% in the fourth quarter of 2021. "Vietnam gained fairly good growth in the first quarter despite the complicated involvement of the Covid-19 pandemic... and global geopolitical uncertainty," the General Statistics Office (GSO) said in a report. The manufacturing and construction sector grew 6.38% from a year earlier, while services expanded 4.58% and agriculture by 2.45%, the GSO said. Vietnam, a manufacturing hub in the region, began lifting its coronavirus restrictions from late last year, allowing factories to resume full operations.
