Thailand Media and Publishing - New billboard tax hikes in the works?

Thai government mulls new changes to the billboard tax

The Interior Ministry is planning to revise the billboard tax again, after increasing the tax rate for signs and billboards in early 2021. Thai newspapers have reported that the new billboard tax ceiling will increase significantly from its current level, by about 669%, if the government approves the new tax scheme. We expect the new rates to come into effect starting in 2023 given the short period of time since the last revision to the billboard tax in the beginning of 2021. Also, the government may allow billboard owners time to prepare for the higher tax expense.

Risk of direct impacts on OOH companies...

Currently, we are unable to quantify the exact impact of the new billboard tax scheme due to the lack of details about the plan. Increasing the billboard tax ceiling could mean there is a risk of immediate changes to the base rates, or that the new tax rate may not immediately hit the tax ceiling. We note that the latest increase in the billboard tax in 2021 was 30%. Therefore, we expect that a higher tax rate could negatively impact the out-of-home (OOH) sector's earnings in 2023, including companies such as VGI (VGI TB, BUY, TP THB6.10) and Plan B Media (PLANB TB, BUY, TP THB9.20).

... but increases may be minimal, in our view

After the new billboard tax was applied in 2021, PLANB paid about THB63m in billboard tax that year, or 26% more than in 2020. As for VGI, management indicates that their billboard tax expense is minimal. If the new billboard tax increases by 50%, based on our base-case scenario, we expect a 3% negative impact on our earnings estimate for PLANB in 2023. Meanwhile, based on our worst-case scenario, if the billboard tax rate is doubled, it would represent a 5% downside to our 2023 net profit forecast for PLANB.

Maintain OVERWEIGHT; TV is currently more attractive than OOH

Given that the level of Covid cases in Thailand remains high, the number of consumers venturing outside of their homes remains low. Moreover, the number of Covid cases could stay at a high level after the Songkran holiday in Apr-22. Therefore, we believe the resumption of outdoor activities in 2Q22 will be gradual rather than swift. As a result, we maintain our view that TV companies should face a lower impact from the weak adex during Covid and no pressure from the potentially higher billboard tax. Although we expect the impact of a revision to the billboard tax to be minimal, the expectation of a possible 669% increase in the tax ceiling could pressure OOH companies' stock prices going forward.

BANGKOK DUSIT MEDICAL SERVICES (BDMS TB) - Getting off to a good start in 2022; Maintain BUY TP THB31.00

Expect 1Q22 core profit to jump 129% y-y and 16% q-q

We expect Covid-related revenue to increase by 20% q-q and account for 18% of revenue contributions in 1Q22 (vs 15% in 4Q21) due to the surging Covid cases in Thailand. Meanwhile, non-Covid Thai patient revenue should grow by 8% y-y and account for 98% of the pre-Covid level. International patient revenue should also have strong recovery momentum and grow by 32% y-y and 7% q-q, implying that it should account for 62% of the pre-Covid level. Overall, we expect the EBITDA margin to improve from 24% in 4Q21 to 27% in 1Q22 due to strong revenue growth and the absence of bonus expenses for employees, which are normally booked in 4Q. From this, we expect BDMS' core profit to jump by 129% y-y and 16% q-q to a record high of THB3.1b in 1Q22.

Expect revenue to grow by 12% in 2022 (vs 8% guidance)

Due to the strong Covid-related revenue projected in 1Q22, we believe management will likely revise up their revenue growth target of 6-8% in 2022 – we estimate strong hospital revenue growth of 36% in 1Q22. We assume that hospital revenue in 2022 will grow by 13% y-y to THB81b, exceeding the 2019 level by 1%. We expect the key growth drivers to come from 50% y-y growth in international patient revenue, 12% y-y growth in non-Covid Thai patient revenue, and Covid-related revenue, which should account for 9% of hospital revenue (vs 14% in 2021).

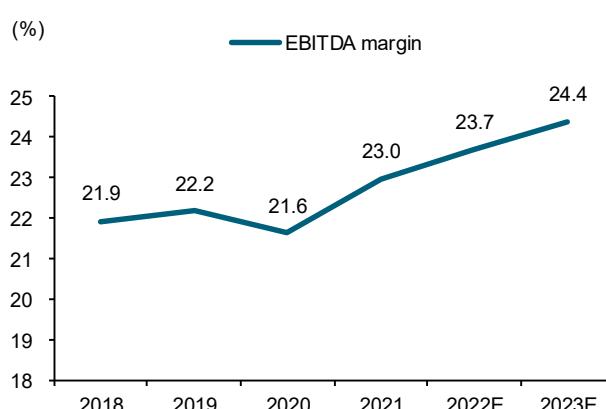

EBITDA margin to exceed pre-Covid, led by high utilisation rate

With strong revenue growth and a high utilisation rate of 70% in 2022 (vs 67% in 2019) projected, we expect an EBITDA margin of 24% in 2022, improving from 23% in 2021 and 22% in 2019. Overall, we forecast BDMS' 2022 core profit to return to the 2019 level of THB10.1b, implying 31% y-y growth, with the scope of an upside from the prolonged Covid pandemic and a higher-than-expected EBITDA margin.

Roll forward DCF-TP valuation base to 2023

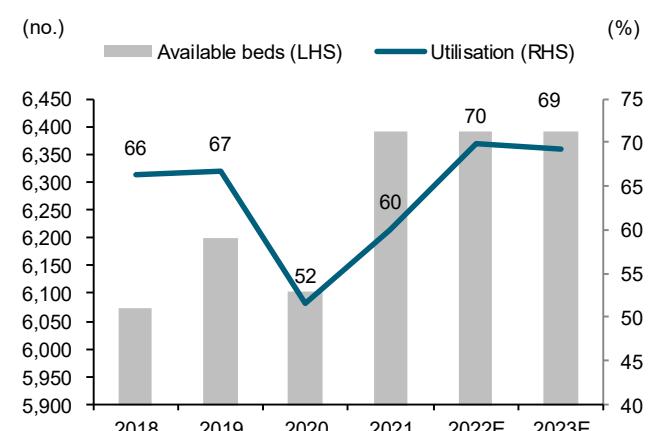

We maintain our forecasts while rolling forward our DCF-TP valuation base to 2023 and derive a new TP of THB31/shr (8.1% WACC, 3% LTG). BDMS is trading at 33x 2023E P/E, lower than its 5-yr average of 37x. Its share price has the potential to hit a new record high (current record was THB28/shr in 2018) following a new record core profit in 1Q22.

Kiatnakin Phatra Bank (KKP TB, BUY; TP THB80) - 1Q22 NP came as a surprise, flawless in every single lines

Once again, KKP reported a record high 1Q22 net profit of THB2,055m (+41% y-y, +2% q-q), beating Bloomberg's consensus estimate and our forecast by 15% and 24%, respectively, thanks to better-than-expected loan growth, fee income, and losses from repossessed car sales. Its 1Q22 operations were solid, driven by 1) a 6.6% q-q loan volume increase due largely to a rise in its hire purchase loans, housing loans, and corporate clients; 2) a rise in its fee income thanks to its strong brokerage fees, bancassurance fees, and mutual fund fees; 3) a significant decline in its losses from repossessed car sales following a reduction in no. of seized cars and a slight lower in loss ratio per car; and 4) a stable NPL q-q, amid the continued increase in its loan volume for several consecutive quarters.

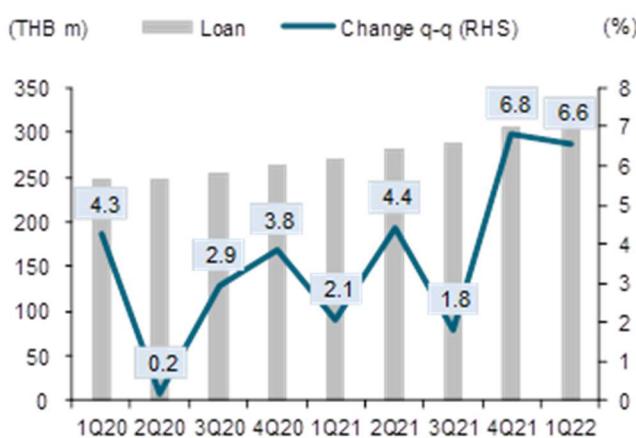

1Q22 key highlights

- The total loan volume surge by 6.6% q-q (21% y-y) from an increase in the hire purchase, housing, and corporate segments. Its new car lending penetration rate for the first two months of 2022 remained high as 5.5% vs 4.8% for TISCO, due mainly to its expansion into new business segments with higher asset quality.
- Its non-NII rose by 20% y-y due to the strong fee income from both bank and capital market sides amid the unfavourable of capital market.
- Losses from repossessed car sales significantly dropped to THB273m in 1Q22 from the average of THB522m per quarter in 2021.
- Its 1Q22 coverage ratio hit a record high at 180% vs 174% in 4Q21

Amid the Omicron and volatile capital market in 1Q22, KKP was able to deliver outstanding performance. With the expectation of higher NII, solid fee income, and lower provisions, we have no doubt that its net profit should continue to increase strongly in the next couple of quarters.

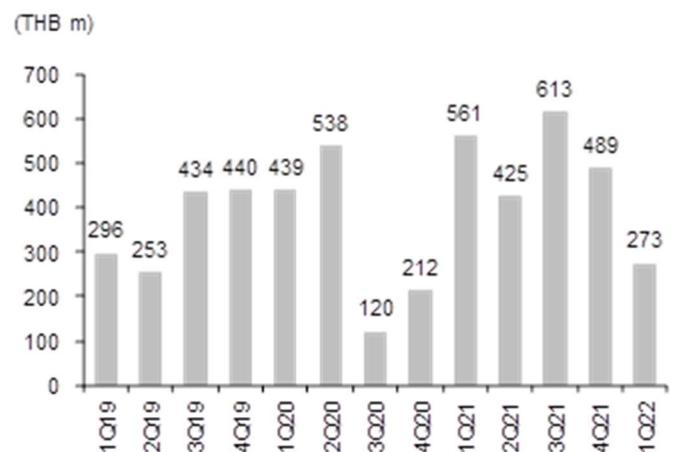

We see c4-7% upside to our current net profit forecast. We maintain KKP as top pick.

Daily New Deaths in Thailand

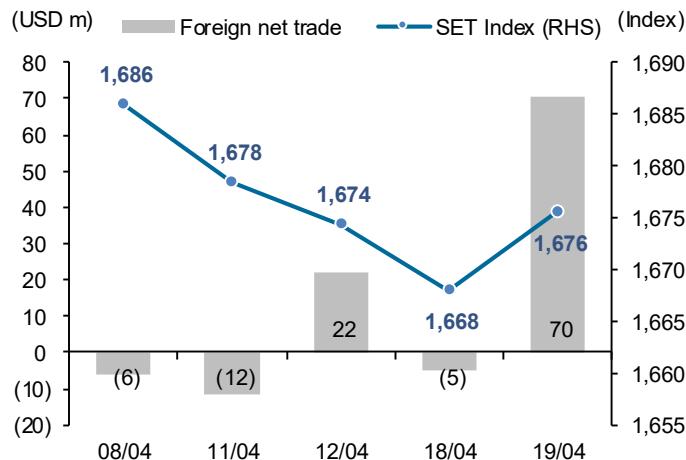

- Debt office unfazed by loan interest payments BANGKOK POST: The country's burden in terms of loan interest payments over the next five years will not exceed the international standard level, says Patricia Mongkhonvanit, director-general of the Public Debt Management Office (PDMO). Mrs Patricia said the office closely monitors the ratio of the interest burden to the country's estimated annual revenue. She said the ratio is estimated to be 8% as of the end of fiscal 2022 and remain below 10% over the next five years. The international standard for the ratio is 10% or less.
- PM unveils new forum on economy, Business sector invited to give input on recovery BANGKOK POST: The government will hold a public forum to hear what the business sector has to say about how to address economic problems, Prime Minister Prayut Chan-o-cha said on Tuesday. Speaking after the weekly cabinet meeting, Gen Prayut said officials from state agencies will be sent to gather feedback which will be used to inform policy. The forum will be held at a public venue, not on the premises of a government agency, Gen Prayut said. Asked whether he would be taking part in the forum, Gen Prayut said he would only deliver a speech at the opening. However he will be kept up-to-date with information from officials in attendance.

- Herd immunity against virus at 50%, Jab drive still well below govt target BANGKOK POST: About half the population has now acquired immunity against Covid-19 but this remains well short of the government's 80% target, according to the Department of Disease Control (DoDC). Dr Chakkarat Pitayowonganon, director of its epidemiology division, said around 10% of the country's 67.5-million people are estimated to have contracted the virus so far. When combined with those who have received two doses of vaccine plus a booster shot, those with immunity against the novel coronavirus should account for about 50% of the population.
- Lower diesel subsidy possible by next month BANGKOK POST: The government may continue with the diesel subsidy programme beyond April to help consumers struggling with inflation, but the subsidy would be limited, according to Energy Minister Supattanapong Punmeechaow. Mr Supattanapong said yesterday the government may help subsidise the diesel price, but at more than half of the price above 30 baht per litre. The government, using the state Fuel Oil Fund, as of Tuesday subsidised the diesel price at 11.21 baht per litre as part of its aid measures to freeze the retail price of diesel at 30 baht per litre until the end of this month. Domestic diesel consumption totals about 65 million litres per day, 1.4 million of which are premium diesel.

Corporate news

- Call for merger delay amid query, House panel seeks to slow True-DTAC deal BANGKOK POST: An extraordinary House committee tasked with studying the impact of the merger between True Corporation and Total Access Communication (DTAC) plans to submit a letter to the cabinet on Wednesday suggesting the procedure be delayed because of legal ambiguities and questions about the regulator's power to deal with the issue. The new National Broadcasting and Telecommunications Commission (NBTC) board, which took office last week, should be given more time to study and review the planned merger, said Gp Capt Anudith Nakornthap, chairman of the committee, which is made up of 25 MPs. This letter is separate from the committee's report gauging the impact of the planned merger, which is scheduled to be finished next week, then submitted to the chairman of parliament, he said. The report covers effects on the overall market caused by the merger, pros and cons of the deal, expected quality of service and tariffs, regulatory loopholes and best practices from overseas.
- Tour package subsidies must continue, urges travel industry BANGKOK POST: The budget for the tour package subsidy scheme "Tour Teaw Thai" should be extended until October and there should be a new initiative to boost travel to secondary destinations, according to the Association of Domestic Travel (ADT). Chaiyapruk Thongkam, the newly elected ADT president, said it was imperative to have a tourism stimulus scheme that can benefit tour operators and he plans to urge the government to use the remaining budget for Tour Teaw Thai, which is scheduled to end this month. As of Tuesday, 67,233 of 200,000 Tour Teaw Thai packages had been sold. Mr Chaiyapruk said the government should extend the deadline to October and increase the quota from one package per tourist to 2-3 packages each to let operators maintain competitive prices and improve demand during the low season.
- Monorail lines near completion, booked for tests BANGKOK POST: Test runs for the Yellow Line monorail train in the Lat Phrao-Samrong section and the Pink Line monorail in the Min Buri-Khae Rai section will start in September. Sorapong Paitoonphong, deputy permanent secretary of the Transport Ministry and acting director-general of the Department of Rail Transport, said the trial runs will be free of charge to the public for three months before commercial operations begin in December.
- High sugar prices unlikely to benefit ailing farmers BANGKOK POST: Thai sugarcane farmers may not benefit from higher global sugar prices as their production costs, including fertilisers and oil, are also on the rise amid the Russia-Ukraine war. Sugar prices on the world market have increased as Brazil, the world's largest sugar producer, is using more sugarcane as a feedstock for ethanol manufacturing, said Narathip Anantasuk, head of both the National Federation of Sugarcane Planters and the Office of Sugarcane Planter Association Zone 7. "Earlier this year, the global sugar price stood at 18 cents a pound. It has already risen to 20.31 cents a pound," he said. Brazil, also the world's second largest producer of ethanol, is increasing ethanol production capacity because the product has a high profit margin despite the ongoing global oil price surge.
