KRUNG THAI BANK (KTB TB) - ROE to stay high and close to 10%; Maintain BUY TP THB26.50

Positive momentum remains

We expect KTB to maintain positive momentum in 2025-27, supported by 1) continued loan expansion at 2-3%, driven by government and state-owned enterprises (SOEs) and retail loan segments (mainly from public services); 2) room to expand non-interest income (non-NII) like bancassurance, mutual funds and digital services; and 3) benign asset quality conditions with room to lower credit costs to 113-115bp.

Improving asset quality allows for a lower credit cost to 115bp

Our calculated NPL formation rate for KTB at 80bp in 4Q24 suggests a downtrend in the last four quarters. Another positive sign for KTB's asset quality, in our view, is a continued lower proportion of loans under stage II to 7.1% of total loans in 4Q24 vs 8.5% in 1Q22. The NPL ratio also declined to 3.5% from 4.0% over the same period. With improving signs in the past three years and a large loan proportion with near-zero probability of default (i.e. government-related at 20% of total loans), we expect lower credit costs to 113-115bp in 2025-27 vs 118bp in 2024.

Raising dividend payout ratio to 49% helps ROE close to 10%

With the significant increase in KTB's dividend payout ratio to 49% in 2024 from 33% previously, we see this positive move as sufficient for KTB's capital management, and it should drive its ROE close to 10% in 2025-27E. Note that KTB is the only major Thai bank in the top five (BBL, KBANK, SCB, KTB and TTB) that generated ROE at 10% or two-digit ROE in 2024. With KTB's CET1 of 18.8% and CAR of 20.8% in 2024, which is the highest level among peers, we believe the 49% dividend payout ratio for KTB could be sustained in 2025-27.

Raising forecast by 14-18%; maintain BUY with a TP of THB26.50

We increase our 2025-26 net profit forecast by 14-18%, mainly from a lower credit cost forecast to c115bp from 130-135bp previously and higher non-NII. The lower credit cost forecast is driven by better asset quality conditions and large proportion of government loans (20% of total loans with near-zero credit cost). After our earnings revision and higher ROE forecast close to 10%, we raise our GGM-based 2025 TP to THB26.50 (from THB23.50 previously), which implies 0.80x 2025E P/BV (COE of 10.0%, ROE of 8.6%) and maintain our BUY rating for KTB. With this report, we transfer coverage of KTB to Nathapol Pongsukcharoenkul.

MK RESTAURANT GROUP (M TB) - Still waiting for big changes ahead; Maintain HOLD TP THB24.00

The company aims for gradual recovery

Management set its 2025 total revenue growth target at 4-5% y-y, primarily driven by SSSG with expectations for a gradual recovery. They also plan to open 15 new branches (representing only 2% of the current number of branches). The target is to maintain the gross margin and SG&A to sales ratio near the levels of 2024, at 67.4% and 58.4%, respectively, in order to preserve a net profit margin of c9-10%. We think these targets represent good margins, even though the revenue mix is likely to gradually shift due to the increase in income from new brands and retail businesses, which have lower-than-average profit margins.

Adjusting the strategy carefully

M also emphasized the adjustment of strategies, with plans to open 15 new branches, consisting of 5 MK, 5 LCS, 3 Yayoi, 1 multi-brand store, and 1-2 Hikiniku To Come branch. The company will also enhance existing brands by adding more vibrancy, such as organizing revenue-boosting activities, alongside steadily expanding the Hikiniku brand without rushing. Management stressed its core values, particularly the quality and safety of food, and they will not enter areas outside their expertise. Instead, they will step out of their comfort zone by striving to create positive changes for existing brands to retain current customers and attract new ones.

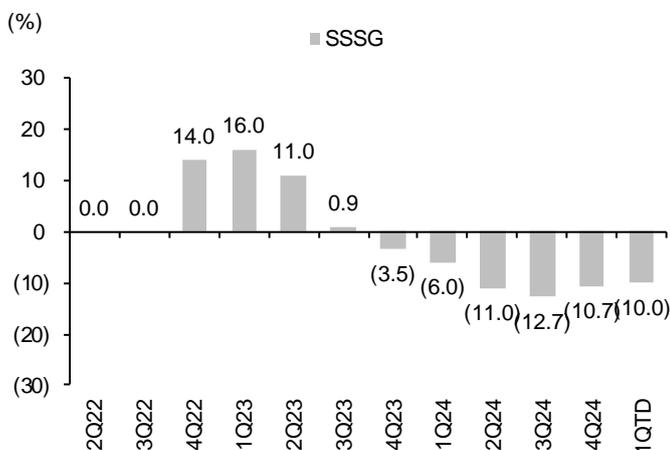

Positive outlook on new strategy, but results are not quick

We are optimistic about the new strategies being implemented by MK Group under the leadership of both Gen 1 and the new management team. However, we have yet to see significant results in terms of numbers. The share of new brands and retail products still accounts for only c2-3% of total revenue, so we need to continue monitoring the recovery. In 1Q25, SSSG for 2MTD is still negative by 10% y-y, despite a good response to the "Moo Marathon" campaign. However, the campaign lasted only nine days, so it has not been able to turn the overall revenue growth positive yet. Nonetheless, we expect lower SG&A expenses to support 1Q25 net profit in maintaining steady levels both q-q and y-y.

Maintain HOLD while waiting for the recovery

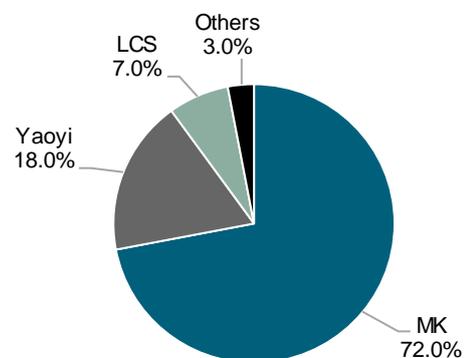

We have not yet seen clear signs of a profit recovery. We maintain our 2025E net profit as stable y-y at THB1.46b, and we are keeping our TP at THB24 (based on a P/E ratio of 15x). Given the current situation, M has become a dividend stock, supported by a strong financial position with no debt, and we expect a dividend yield of c6-7% per year.

Economic news

- Regulator aims for collusion-free mobile spectrum auction BANGKOK POST: The National Broadcasting and Telecommunications Commission (NBTC) is working on a plan to ensure an upcoming auction of six mobile spectrum bands in May is free of collusion. Officials of the Thai telecom regulator have been asked to consider a way to group the spectrum bands to ensure meaningful competition among bidders and create a clear framework for each round of the auction, said Dr Sarana Boonbaichaiyapruk, the NBTC chairman. The NBTC board in January approved a draft for a planned auction of six spectrum bands: the low bands of 850MHz, middle bands of 1500, 1800, 2100 and 2300MHz, and the high band of 26GHz. An earlier draft proposed dividing the auction into three sessions, starting with the low band, followed by the mid bands and the high band. Officials on March 12 proposed to the board that all the bands be auctioned together in one session. However, board members expressed concern that this could lead to collusion, and sent NBTC management back to the drawing board.
- Stimulus lifts Thai industrial sentiment to 20-month high BANGKOK POST: Thai industrial sentiment rose to its highest level in nearly two years in February due to lower interest rates, government stimulus measures and tourism, the Federation of Thai Industries (FTI) said on Wednesday. A government credit guarantee measure to support pickup truck purchases by small businesses was also positive and would help the struggling auto industry, the group said. "The credit guarantee should generate at least 100,000 new auto purchases, bringing back production and employment" said federation chairman Kriengkrai Thiennukul. The industrial sentiment index compiled by the FTI rose in February for a second consecutive month, reaching 93.4, from 91.6 in January, to post its highest reading since June 2023. FTI members are also preparing to meet Prime Minister Paetongtarn Shinawatra on Thursday to discuss ways to approach the trade and tariff policies of US President Donald Trump.
- Thailand benefiting from trade war, finance minister says BANGKOK POST: Thailand is benefiting from the global trade war as more foreign investments flow in, Finance Minister Pichai Chunhavajira said on Wednesday. Foreign investment into Thailand will help bring economic growth closer to a target of 3.0% to 3.5%, he said, adding the economy was fiscally stable with ample liquidity, making it attractive to investors. The government was targeting export growth of 4% this year, he said. According to the Joint Standing Committee on Commerce, Industry and Banking (JSCCIB), operating costs for Thai exports are likely to spike by 6-8% on average given US President Donald Trump's aggressive tariff policy on imports. The Federation of Thai Industries (FTI) reported that the sluggish Thai automotive industry may worsen if President Trump pushes ahead with his plan to impose tariffs on car imports. Meanwhile, the Thai Chamber of Commerce is calling on the government to create a war room to tackle tariff threats by the Trump administration.
- Stock markets extend losses over US tariffs, recession fears BANGKOK POST: Global stock markets extended losses on Tuesday as US President Donald Trump waffled on the size of tariffs he will levy on Canadian steel, aggravating concerns his trade policies could push the United States toward recession. In New York, the Dow index of blue-chip stocks closed down 1.1% while the broad-based S&P 500 shed 0.8%. The tech-heavy Nasdaq dipped 0.2%, though Tesla and Amazon staged rebounds a day after the index closed 4% lower in its worst session since 2022. Europe's main indices ended the day in the red, as did most in Asia. "Markets are jittery and volatility seems like the only certainty while the White House pushes hard to usher in a new era, seemingly happy for stock markets to be collateral damage," said Matt Britzman, senior equity analyst at Hargreaves Lansdown.
- PM in talks with committee on how to handle Trump BANGKOK POST: The Joint Standing Committee on Commerce, Industry and Banking will meet the prime minister today to discuss measures to deal with the new US trade policy, which is concerning entrepreneurs. "The discussion will pave the way for the public and private sectors to draft a master plan for action in the short, medium and long term," said Kriengkrai Thiennukul, chairman of the Federation of Thai Industries (FTI). The move follows US President Donald Trump's imposition of tariffs on Canada, Mexico and China. Other countries, especially those with trade surpluses with the US, are likely to be in a similar situation as their trade relations with Washington are being assessed. "Thailand may also be on Trump's radar," said Mr Kriengkrai. The country's trade surplus with the US was the 11th-largest globally at more than US$35 billion, or 1.2 trillion baht, in 2024.

Corporate news

- True's decision to appoint Brekke group CEO lauded BANGKOK POST: True Corporation's decision to appoint veteran telecom executive Sigve Brekke as group chief executive represents a good move, aligning with its goal of becoming a world-class tech company, according to an industry source who requested anonymity. The corporation on Tuesday announced a leadership restructuring, including the appointment of Mr Brekke as group chief executive to elevate its growth and position True as a global tech company. The restructuring took effect immediately. The source said Mr Brekke is a suitable choice for the post as he has a long history of leadership in the global telecom sector as well as experience in negotiating to secure the best interests of the organisation. The Thai telecom market resembles an oligopoly, driven by two major players, said the source, and Mr Brekke would be able to negotiate for True's maximum profit. True's main rival, Advanced Info Service, is transforming into what it calls a cognitive telecom company. Moreover, Mr Brekke could help True distance itself from Chareon Pokphand (CP) Group, its parent company, when it comes to negotiations or taking action, said the source. Mr Brekke said Thailand's potential in the era of digitalisation and inclusive AI is indisputable, and True, as the country's largest operator, will continue to be the industry champion, delivering cutting edge services to its customers, propelling Thailand's transition into a sustainable digital economy. As part of the restructuring, Mr Brekke will oversee the company's overall strategic direction.

- Ttb expects more clients to utilise 'You Fight, We Help' BANGKOK POST: TMBThanachart Bank (ttb) anticipates an increase in customer participation in the "You Fight, We Help" debt relief scheme, which is designed to assist households in easing their debt burden amid slower economic growth. Ttb president Thakorn Piyapan said the bank aims to raise the proportion of eligible participants in the debt relief scheme to 70% of total registrants following an extension to the registration period. The cabinet recently approved extending the registration deadline from Feb 28 to April 30. Currently, 12,500 mortgage loan customers are seeking assistance under the debt relief scheme, with about 7,000 clients already participating, accounting for 56% of all qualified customers. The bank expects the participation ratio to increase to 70% once the registration for the programme ends next month.
- Condo developers struggle with B80bn debt mountain BANGKOK POST: A mismatch between loan terms and project durations has forced developers with substantial condo inventory to grapple with short-term debt obligations, with over 80 billion baht in debentures due for repayment this year, according to Asia Plus Securities (ASPS). Therdsak Thaveeteeratham, executive vice-president of ASPS, said that while developers' debt-to-equity ratios were not high, many relied heavily on debentures. They also issued debentures with maturities too short or misaligned with condo construction timelines. "Developers have become too reliant on debentures," Mr Therdsak said. "If the debenture market weakens and rollovers are not possible, they risk default. When debt matures while condos are completed but many units remain unsold, it creates financial strain." He warned that developers must avoid repeating mismatches like those seen in the past, as the property sales situation is weaker than before. New debenture issuances will undergo stricter screening, with potential collateral requests to reduce risk for subscribers.
- Bol says 2,000MW renewable supply not sufficient BANGKOK POST: The government's pilot project to allow renewable power producers to directly sell electricity totalling 2,000 megawatts to companies may be insufficient to drive new investments in the country, says the Board of Investment (Bol). Prospective investors not only need adequate infrastructure and highly skilled workers when planning to build new factories, but also want the government to facilitate their purchase of renewable power, said Narit Therdsteeerasukdi, secretary-general of the Bol. More digital technology firms as well as other sectors want clean energy to run their businesses because of the global campaign to cut carbon dioxide emissions, he said. "Requests for renewable electricity keep rolling in weekly, meaning the 2,000MW supply may not be enough," said Mr Narit. The Bol considers entrepreneurs' applications for investment incentives to establish or expand their businesses in the country.
- SET urges investors to take a long-term outlook amid dip BANGKOK POST: Investors must take a long-term approach as the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET) has entered a correction phase, the bourse said yesterday, but insisted dividend yield remain attractive despite a downturn. Soraphol Tulayasathien, senior executive vice-president of the SET, said the Thai index has entered a correction phase, declining 17.9% as of February's close from this cycle's peak. Despite the downturn, dividend yields remained attractive compared with historical levels. Fundamental multipliers appeared notably discounted, with price-to-earnings (P/E) ratios of 12.5-16.6 times and price-to-book value (P/BV) ratios of 1.2-1.4 times, significantly below historical correction-period averages, he said. During this adjustment period, high P/E stocks experienced the steepest declines, signifying market concerns over risk exposure and overvaluation. Thai stocks have the lowest valuations in the region, mainly attributed to weaker listed firm earnings than expected, said Mr Soraphol. However, the P/E ratio of Thai stocks remains in line with regional markets, he said.
