Published Reports

CENTRAL RETAIL CORP (CRC TB) - Earnings remain resilient; Maintain BUY TP THB23.00

Better-than-expected 4Q25 core profit

CRC reported 4Q25 net profit of THB2,630m, up 20.9% y-y and 102.1% q-q. Excluding one-offs from the Rinascente disposal gain and the Nguyen Kim impairment, core profit for 4Q25 came in at THB3,011m, flat y-y but up 131.8% q-q, better than our and market's expectations by c15%, supported by better-than-expected profitability. However, CRC restated its historical financials for 2024-25 to reflect Rinascente as if it had not existed. Under the new reporting treatment, core profit for 4Q25 (Thailand and Vietnam only) was THB2,729m, up 17.2% y-y and 128.9% q-q, supported by higher other income and lower interest expenses.

Thailand and Vietnam businesses remained resilient

Under the restated financials (Thailand and Vietnam only), 4Q25 total sales were flat y-y despite SSS down 4% y-y, offset by new store openings and a slight increase in rental income. GPM was flat y-y, while SG&A/Revenue increased in line with store expansion. In addition, CRC invested in JD Sports (40% stake), and expects profit share contributions of around THB100m per year.

Expect 2025 core profit to grow 5.7% y-y

For 2025's core profit (excluding Rinascente) was THB7,432m, down 4% y-y. In the near term, 1Q26 profit is expected to be broadly flat y-y, as SSS during 1 Jan–22 Feb 2026 remained down c4% y-y, but it should be offset by lower interest expenses. In 2Q26, earnings should return to y-y growth, supported by a low base and the disposal of Nguyen Kim (2025 loss of THB250m). Overall for 2026, given the 4Q25 earnings beat, the JD Sports investment, and the restatement, we have fine-tuned our 2026-28 assumptions, with earnings estimates broadly unchanged. We forecast 2026 profit growth of 5.7% y-y (still down 3.3% if including Rinascente profit in the 2025 base), driven by the Nguyen Kim disposal, JD Sports profit contributions, and lower interest expenses.

Maintain BUY on CRC with a TP of THB23.00

We remain positive on CRC's restructuring, long-term growth from its Vietnam business, and a diversified portfolio in Thailand. We maintain BUY with a TP of THB23.00 (WACC 7.2%, TG 2.0%). CRC also announced a dividend of THB1.11/share with an XD date of 21 Apr 2026.

CH.KARNCHANG (CK TB) - Aims to sustain performance in 2026; Downgrade to HOLD TP THB19.00

4Q25 earnings up y-y but down q-q on seasonality

CK reported 4Q25 net profit of THB444m (-74% q-q but turning around from a net loss of THB171m in 4Q24), exceeding our forecast by 7%. Construction revenue remained high at THB10b (-5% q-q, +11% y-y), but GPM declined to 6.9% (vs. 7.9% in 3Q25 and 7.2% in 4Q24), the lowest in seven quarters, mainly due to cost revisions on certain projects. For full-year 2025, net profit reached THB3.3b (+130% y-y); excluding a one-time investment divestment gain, core profit was THB2.5b (+73% y-y).

Targets revenue above THB40b and 7–8% GPM in 2026

For 2026, management expects construction revenue to remain above THB40b, supported by CK's solid backlog of THB169b at end-2025, providing revenue visibility for the next four years. Meanwhile, gross margin is projected to recover from the 4Q25 level, which was impacted by one-time expenses, returning to the 7–8% range in 2026. SG&A is expected to remain broadly in line with 2025 levels, while finance costs should decline following debt repayments in late 2025. Regarding the road subsidence incident at the MRT Purple Line project, management expects some impact on project margins, but not below the normal range, as it believes insurance claims will cover most of the damages.

Political stability to drive public investment forward

Management expects the formation of a new government to act as a catalyst for a new round of public infrastructure investment. CK targets new contract wins of THB260b over 2026–2028, mainly from public-sector projects expected to open for bidding from 4Q26. Key potential projects include airport expansions, motorways, double-track railways, and Phase 2 of the high-speed rail project, with an assumed bid success rate of 25–30%. In addition, projects related to its subsidiary BEM amount to THB65b in total. These include the Double Deck expressway project (THB35b), currently pending Cabinet approval and expected to be signed in 2H26, and M&E works for the Purple Line South project (THB30b), with negotiations anticipated in 4Q26.

Maintain our estimates; limited upside to TP

We maintain our 2026 core profit forecast at THB2.28b (-9% y-y). The share price has risen 49% YTD, which we believe largely reflects improved political stability, leaving less than 10% upside to our TP of THB19. In the near term, 1Q26 earnings are expected to soften q-q. We therefore downgrade our rating from BUY to HOLD and await clearer visibility on public-sector project bidding in 2H26, which could provide a new trading catalyst.

ELECTRICITY GENERATING (EGCO TB) - 4Q25 results at first glance; Maintain HOLD TP THB135.00

4Q25 core profit below expectations

Highlights

- EGCO reported a 4Q25 net loss of THB351m, improving from a loss of THB656m in 3Q25 but worsening from a loss of THB106m in 4Q24. Excluding special items (FX impact, investment impairments, and fair value changes on financial instruments), 4Q25 core profit would be THB91m, 24% below our estimate, mainly due to higher-than-expected maintenance shutdown expenses at several plants.
- Core operations remained weak in 4Q25. Although the QPL coal-fired plant resumed operations after its 3Q25 maintenance shutdown, its available capacity and tariff remained below the previous PPA level. In addition, share of profit from associates declined as several plants underwent maintenance, while power tariffs in the Philippines and South Korea fell due to intense competition. The quarter also included FX losses and impairment charges on the Chaiyaphum and TPN plants following the expiry of their adder contracts.
- For FY2025, EGCO posted net profit of THB4.7b (-13% y-y). The decline mainly reflected lower earnings from coal-fired assets: the Quezon plant began selling electricity under a new PSA with a lower tariff, while Paju and BLCP saw lower unit tariffs.

Outlook

- We expect 2026 core profit to improve slightly from 2025, supported by fewer planned outages at US plants, full-year contributions from Taiwan assets, and stable performance in South Korea. We also expect QPL and SBPL earnings to remain broadly stable.
- EGCO retains upside from its investment in CDI (current market cap ~THB250b). The company can sell shares after the lock-up expires in March 2026. EGCO also announced a 2H25 dividend of THB3.25/share, implying an attractive dividend yield. However, with limited upside to our TP of THB135, we maintain HOLD.

HANA MICROELECTRONICS (HANA TB) - 4Q25 results at first glance; Maintain HOLD TP THB18.00

4Q25 profit up q-q on other income

Highlights

- 4Q25 net profit was THB143m, up from THB15m in 3Q25 and turning around from a net loss of THB1.7b in 4Q24. Excluding FX loss, core profit was THB155m, increasing from THB38m in 3Q25 and THB11m in 4Q24.
- The q-q improvement was largely due to higher other income, which rose to THB171m from THB75m in 3Q25. However, core operating performance still showed a loss of THB64m, close to the THB66m loss in 3Q25, although better than the THB137m loss in 4Q24.
- Revenue in USD terms continued to decline, down 8.5% q-q and 9.1% y-y. In THB terms, revenue fell more sharply (-9.0% q-q, -13.6% y-y) due to the stronger baht.
- Gross margin declined further to 5.5% from 6.0% in 3Q25, but improved slightly from 5.3% in 4Q24.
- Operating expenses decreased both q-q and y-y, but not enough to offset weak gross margin. SG&A to sales was 6.8% (down from 7.2% in 3Q25), still higher than gross margin. As a result, operating margin remained negative at -1.3%, compared with -1.2% in 3Q25.
- Recognized a share of loss from associate (PTT joint venture) FT1 of THB10.4m in 4Q25, bringing full-year recognized loss to THB26.4m.
- HANA's 2025 net profit was THB670m, turning around from a net loss of THB634m in 2024. Core profit was THB566m (-37.9% y-y).

Outlook

- Trade receivable days stood at 76 days, in line with the previous quarter. However, receivables aged 6–12 months increased to THB167m from THB86m in 3Q25.
- The company also revised its dividend policy to pay at least 30% of net profit (previously 30–100% of net profit). Despite the change, it announced a total dividend of THB1.0/shr for 2025 (EPS of THB 0.76), implying a payout ratio of 132%. The remaining 2H25 dividend is THB 0.75 per share, representing a yield of around 4%.

NSL FOODS (NSL TB) - 4Q25 results at first glance; Maintain BUY TP THB33.00

4Q25 earnings beat our estimate by 5%

Highlights

- 4Q25 net profit was THB142m (+11.9% q-q, -3.9% y-y), 5% above our estimate, driven by a better-than-expected gross margin recovery.
- Total revenue rose 5.8% q-q and 7.2% y-y, moderating from double-digit growth in the previous three quarters. For full-year 2025, revenue grew 18.6% y-y, exceeding the 16% target.
- Bakery revenue increased 5.5% q-q and 4.7% y-y, remaining resilient despite the impact from government co-payment schemes. Food service revenue declined 9.5% q-q and 6.3% y-y, reflecting customer order patterns. Following a reclassification between NSL brands and export revenue, we consider the combined revenue of the two segments, which grew 25.0% q-q and 37.5% y-y, indicating continued expansion across both segments.
- Gross margin recovered to 18.6% (above our 18.0% forecast) from 17.9% in 3Q25, as labor issue eased. However, it declined from 20.3% in 4Q24 due to revenue mix (a higher share of lower-margin products) and margin pressure in the bakery segment from higher raw material costs and intensified competition.
- Expenses continued to rise (+12.3% q-q, +6.1% y-y), pushing SG&A to sales up to 9.4% from 8.9% in 3Q25, driven by higher staff costs and consulting fees related to sustainability initiatives and business acquisitions. Consulting expenses in 2025 increased by THB14.5m (THB11.6m net of tax), reducing profit by around 8%.
- 2025 net profit reached a record high of THB604m (+11.7% y-y).

Outlook

- The company targets 2026 revenue growth of 13–15% y-y and a gross margin of 21.0% (vs. our forecast of 19.1%). It is also in the process of installing new factory machinery, which is expected to be completed and operational by 3Q26.
- 1QTD revenue is expected to grow 13–15% y-y, close to management's target, mainly driven by domestic revenue across bakery, NSL brands, and food service. Export revenue may decline q-q but remain strong y-y.
- The company announced a 2H25 dividend of THB0.55 per share, implying a 2.2% yield.

R&B FOOD SUPPLY (RBF TB) - 4Q25 results at first glance; Maintain HOLD TP THB4.00

4Q25 earnings beat on lower tax; dividend also beat expectations with a 6% yield

Highlights

- 4Q25 net profit was THB128m (+26% q-q, -1.4% y-y). Excluding FX loss and credit loss, core profit was THB132m (+30.2% q-q, +2.1% y-y), around 10% above our forecast, mainly due to lower tax expenses.
- Total revenue grew 2.5% q-q but declined 0.6% y-y. The q-q growth was driven by domestic revenue (+4.1% q-q, -3.0% y-y), while overseas revenue declined slightly q-q due to seasonality. For full-year 2025, total revenue decreased slightly by 2.1% y-y.
- Gross margin improved to 35.5%, up from 33.6% in 3Q25 and 34.1% in 4Q24. Although revenue from the high-margin Flavor and Fragrance segment declined (-6.8% q-q, -11.4% y-y), overall gross margin improved, likely due to better margins in other product groups.
- SG&A expenses increased (+4.2% q-q, +6.2% y-y), resulting in SG&A to sales rising to 22.3%, from 22.0% in 3Q25 and 20.9% in 4Q24.
- The effective tax rate declined to 10.3%, below our estimate of 15.0%, mainly due to recognition of loss carry-forward benefits and deferred tax assets.
- RBF's 2025 net profit was THB432m (-15.8% y-y).

Outlook

- The company announced a dividend of THB0.21/shr, higher than usual, implying a payout ratio of 97% (vs. 68% in 2024) and an attractive dividend yield of 6%.
- RBF also announced the establishment of a new subsidiary in China, Ai En Bi Food Ingredient Company Limited, to operate in food coating and trading businesses. The registered capital is THB150m, with completion expected by June 2026.

AMATA - Core profit beat by 15% on higher gross margin

Highlights

- AMATA reported a 4Q25 net profit of THB1.0b. Excluding FX gains, core profit came in at THB917.4m (-20.5% q-q, -6.1% y-y). Despite the q-q and y-y decline, earnings exceeded our estimate by 15%.
- The earnings beat was mainly driven by lower-than-expected development costs in Vietnam, amounting to THB215m. Previously, the company had included the construction cost of a six-lane road in its project development budget; however, the government later assumed responsibility for the road construction. This led to a temporary surge in Vietnam's industrial estate gross margin and lifted the blended gross margin (Thailand and Vietnam) to 63.4% in 4Q25 (vs. our estimate of 43.5%).
- Excluding this one-off impact, 4Q25 core profit would have been approximately THB827m, broadly in line with our forecast.
- In 4Q25, AMATA recorded land sales of 243 rai, bringing full-year 2025 sales to 1,233 rai, down from 3,018 rai in 2024. The figure fell short of the company's target due to delays in contract signings by customers.
- Land transfers in 4Q25 totaled 518 rai, bringing full-year 2025 transfers to 1,645 rai, down from 1,912 rai in 2024. However, a higher average selling price per rai in 4Q25 limited the q-q decline in industrial estate revenue to just 0.8%, though revenue fell 38.8% y-y, as land transfers in 2024 were heavily concentrated in 4Q24.
- AMATA reported a record-high 2025 core profit of THB3.3b (+30.0% y-y). Although land transfers were lower than the previous year, leading to a 3.3% y-y decline in industrial estate revenue, this was more than offset by a significant improvement in gross margin and lower interest expenses, which together supported the strong earnings growth.
- AMATA declared a 2H25 dividend of THB0.75 per share (4.1% yield), with an XD date of 5 May 2026. This brings the full-year dividend to THB1.10 per share, implying a yield of 6.0%.

Outlook

- We maintain our 2026 land transfer assumption at 1,600 rai, slightly lower than the previous year. We continue to forecast 2026 core profit at THB2.9b (-13.0% y-y), reflecting normalisation from a high base in 2025. We maintain our TP of THB21.00, based on 2026E P/E of 8.5x, and maintain our BUY rating, supported by an undemanding valuation at 7.3x P/E and 0.8x P/BV.

Economic news

- War-induced volatility rattles global markets BANGKOK POST: Global stock markets dived, energy prices surged and the US dollar gained on Tuesday as the Iran war drove volatility across global financial markets and roiled companies worldwide. World oil prices soared more than 8% and European natural gas prices rocketed for a second day running as the war disrupted Middle East exports. Brent North Sea crude, the international benchmark, topped $85 a barrel for the first time since July 2024. The US and Israeli attacks on the Islamic republic and its retaliation across the region have upended regional energy flows, with the crucial Strait of Hormuz — through which about a fifth of global oil transits — effectively closed off. The war has also fuelled fears of a fresh energy crisis that could ramp up inflation.
- Thai authorities hunt for new fuel sources BANGKOK POST: Thailand is moving to secure alternative fuel supplies to offset the impact from the Closure of the Strait of Hormuz, a key shipping lane for global oil and liquefied natural gas (LNG) transport. Caretaker energy minister Auttapol Rerkpiboon said the government plans to purchase crude oil from West Africa and the United States, with deliveries expected by the end of April. The move follows discussions between energy authorities and private companies after measures introduced in response to the US-Iran conflict, which included suspending oil exports. Thailand has long pursued diversification of its energy imports.
- Thai exporters facing war risks to get help BANGKOK POST: The Ministry of Commerce is introducing measures to manage prices and assist exporters amid surging freight costs caused by conflicts in the Middle East. While the direct impact on Thailand's trade with the countries involved in the conflict is limited, the escalating situation has significant effects on global economic and trade stability, caretaker commerce minister Suphajee Suthumpun said on Tuesday. Energy and maritime transport in particular require close monitoring, she said. In 2025, Thailand's exports to the Middle East were valued at $12.5 billion, accounting for 3.7% of total export value. There are no signs of widespread order cancellations or delays yet, Ms Suphajee said. However, the impact in the Middle East and on global markets is expected to intensify as tensions increase, especially for nations dependent on shipping routes in the conflict zone. Mrs Suphajee said increased security risks and navigational restrictions have directly affected maritime transport, causing many shipping companies to reroute vessels and extend transit times. These changes will result in rising freight rates, insurance premiums and logistics costs.
- Mideast war exposes fragile oil and gas dependency BANGKOK POST: As in 2022 when Russia invaded Ukraine, the new war in the Middle East is exposing once again how far Europe and others lag in replacing imported fossil fuels with domestic solar and wind power, specialists say. The Russian invasion in 2022 triggered a massive energy crisis, particularly in Europe, where gas prices — then largely dependent on imports from Russia — soared. Four years later, the continent is instead importing liquid natural gas (LNG) in large volumes, notably from Qatar — one of the countries caught up in Iran's retaliation against US and Israeli attacks. Europe also remains dependent on oil from the Middle East, where ships have been blocked and sometimes targeted by Iranian strikes. Regarding its energy security, "Europe is facing the biggest wake-up call since the invasion in Ukraine", said Ana Maria Jaller-Makarewicz, analyst for the Institute for Energy Economics and Financial Analysis (IEEFA).
- Bank of Thailand: Middle East war will dent Thai GDP BANGKOK POST: The new war in the Middle East could dent gross domestic product (GDP) by 0.1-0.15 percentage points due to the heightened risk to oil supply, according to Bank of Thailand governor Vitai Ratanakorn. Speaking on a TV programme on the National Broadcasting Service of Thailand channel late Monday, Mr Vitai said the central bank had been monitoring the conflict in the Middle East since Israel and the US began attacks on Iran on Saturday. At the Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) meeting last week, which trimmed the policy interest rate to 1.0%, geopolitical risks were factored into Thai economic projections. However, the current situation appeared more severe and broader than previously assessed, he said. Initially, the MPC expected that if clashes occurred, they would resemble last year's 12 days of fighting between Iran and Israel. But the current situation was clearly more severe and far more widespread, Mr Vitai said. Iran's top military commanders had been targeted and killed and Iran retaliated with strikes on several neighbouring countries - an escalation that was not anticipated, he said.
- Stocks slide as Middle East conflict fans inflation fears BANGKOK POST: Stocks resumed their selloff and the dollar strengthened in early Asian trading on Tuesday as investors considered the implications of US and Israeli strikes on Iran on energy prices and the global economy. MSCI's broadest index of Asia-Pacific shares outside Japan fell 1% to extend losses for a second day, led by a 2.5% tumble in Korean shares, while Tokyo's Nikkei 225 slumped 0.8%. S&P 500 e-mini futures were down 0.2%. "Economic policy uncertainty was already elevated and now with the Iran conflict, the geopolitical risk is expected to rise too," said Rupal Agarwal, Asia quant strategist at Bernstein in Singapore. "Last time both spiked was in 2022 during the Russia-Ukraine conflict, which didn't work well for Asian markets." Stocks on Wall Street stabilised after a volatile session on Monday which saw the S&P 500 rally from an early selloff to close flat and the Nasdaq Composite climb 0.4%, as investors bought the dip in markets after the conflict in the Middle East spilled over into Lebanon. With no end to hostilities in sight, an official from Iran's Revolutionary Guards said on Monday that the Strait of Hormuz is closed to marine traffic and the country will fire on any ship trying to pass.
- BoT seeks to scrap cross-province fees BANGKOK POST: Current banking fees on cross-province money transactions should be scrapped once the Bank of Thailand completes its fee standardisation of the banking system, as the operating costs of the banking industry have been declining, said governor Vitai Ratanakorn. Speaking at the annual meeting of the Economic Reporters Association, Mr Vitai said the central bank hopes there will be no fees imposed on cross-province financial transactions, which include money deposits, withdrawals and transfers covering both cash and cheques. In the initial stage of the "new fee standardisation framework in the banking system", the central bank expects standardised fees to cover 10-15 fee items, primarily focusing on transactional fees and those related to small and medium-sized enterprise (SME) loans. Other fees that should be exempted include the issuing of bank statements, account maintenance fees, ATM card fees, inter-provincial deposits, withdrawals and transfers, as well as money transfers via the baht net system. "In the past, such transactions involved cash transportation costs, but these costs have declined substantially today, given the progress in technology infrastructure development and digitalisation," Mr Vitai noted.

- Long war expected to push gold prices to record highs BANGKOK POST: Local gold traders say prices could top US$6,000 an ounce, with domestic gold bars selling at 88,000 baht per baht-weight, if the ongoing conflict in the Middle East lasts for four weeks as US President Donald Trump has stated. Bullion soared by about $80 per ounce over the weekend to $5,370 after the US and Israel launched attacks on Iran, killing the Islamic Republic's supreme leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, and Tehran responded with waves of missiles at targets in multiple countries. Spot gold climbed by as much as 2.2% to top $5,390 an ounce in early trading on Monday, as the war in the Middle East rattled markets and drove investors towards the safe haven asset, said Kritcharat Hirunyasiri, chairman of MTS Gold. Locally, gold bars were trading at 80,500 baht per baht-weight as the baht weakened to near 31.50 baht to the dollar amid capital outflows from the Stock Exchange of Thailand. "The ongoing fighting in the Middle East is unlikely to end shortly. We see the situation dragging on, similar to the Russia-Ukraine war," Mr Kritcharat said.

Corporate news

- AP ventures into new provinces in 2026 BANGKOK POST: SET-listed developer AP Thailand is sharpening its focus on provincial expansion this year, increasing launches outside Greater Bangkok by entering at least five new provinces, despite maintaining a cautious rollout plan. The company plans to launch 42 new residential projects worth a combined 55 billion baht, with eight projects valued at 8 billion baht located in provincial markets. New destinations include Hua Hin in Prachuap Khiri Khan, Hat Yai in Songkhla, Saraburi, Chon Buri and Chanthaburi, adding to the 14 provinces where AP already operates. Ratchayud Nunthachotsophol, the company's president, said infrastructure investment and expanding transport routes are opening up new growth corridors beyond the capital. "Although the market remains challenging, we see opportunities from the government's infrastructure investment, which is expanding to areas surrounding Bangkok and along transport routes in the provinces," he said. "The recent interest rate cut is also good news for homebuyers and should help stimulate purchasing power." Despite launching fewer projects, AP is targeting a 4.6% increase in presales to 49 billion baht in 2026. Last year, AP launched 44 projects worth 59.6 billion baht, including only two provincial projects valued at 2.3 billion baht. Total presales tallied 46.9 billion baht last year, up slightly from 46.7 billion in 2024, but less than the post-pandemic peak of 51.4 billion in 2023.
