Published Reports

ICHITAN GROUP (ICHI TB) - Key takeaways from analyst meeting; Maintain HOLD TP THB15.00

Highlights

- Management targets 2026 revenue growth of 12% y-y to THB9.1b, mainly driven by the domestic market. Growth will be supported by strong expansion in the alkaline water segment (+67% y-y) and OEM business (+20% y-y). Revenue from its existing OEM customer, IF, is expected to remain stable, while the company continues to add new OEM clients.
- Export revenue is expected to decline 26% y-y to THB180m, mainly due to the loss of the Cambodia market. Going forward, exports will focus on Laos, with plans to further expand into Malaysia.
- The company guides for a gross margin of at least 24%, close to 24.3% in 2025, assuming stable input costs. It targets a net profit margin of 15% (excluding special items), implying net profit of about THB1.36b (+17% y-y).
- Tax benefits from medical equipment donations will continue. The company received a three-year tax incentive totaling THB300m. So far, THB120.7m has been used, leaving THB179m available for 2026–27.

Comments

- We expect 1Q26 core profit at THB271m (+7.1% q-q, +10.6% y-y). Although the green tea market value declined by 5% y-y in January, management said ICHI's revenue remains on track to grow about 12% y-y. The key drivers are the CVS channel and strong growth in large-size bottle products. Gross margin is expected to stay above 24%, improving both q-q and y-y.
- The company has locked in raw material and packaging costs through June 2026, which should help secure gross margins in 1H26. Earnings should also benefit from hot weather, new product launches, and strong growth in alkaline water.
- However, if oil prices continue to rise, packaging costs may increase in 2H26. Packaging costs (plastic resin, bottle caps, and labels) account for about 36% of total costs, while energy costs make up around 5%. A 5% increase in packaging and energy costs would reduce profit by about 5.8%. This remains a key risk to monitor.
- We forecast 2026 core profit at THB1.33b (+13.5% y-y). Including additional net tax benefits of THB30–40m (after donations), earnings would be in line with the company's target. This could support a THB1 increase to our current target price of THB15.
- However, the risk of higher energy costs in 2H26 remains.
- The stock will go XD for a THB0.55 dividend on 13 March.

CHULARAT HOSPITAL (CHG TB) - Earnings recovery with generous yield; Maintain BUY TP THB2.02

Social Security patients to anchor 2026 growth

We expect CHG's revenue to grow modestly by 3% in 2026, mainly driven by SSO patients (+5% y-y; 28% revenue mix), with c20 approved gastric sleeve surgery cases YTD (versus 7 in 2H25) and a stable high-cost care reimbursement rate (Adj RW>2) at THB 12,000/RW. Cash patient revenue should expand 2.5%, aided by outpatient growth benefitting from preventive care initiatives and the planned opening of new OPD facility at CH11 in 1H26. Foreign patient revenue remains limited at 4%, mainly from Myanmar, with gradual recovery in Cambodia and longer-term upside from a low base. Government-related schemes such as UCEP and cardiac center management may also support growth.

Cost control and case mix to drive profitability

We expect profit margin to improve on higher case intensity (i.e. in cardiology, neurology and oncology) and continued cost discipline. CHG has revised its SSO payment assumptions for chronic disease treatments at CH9 and CH11 from a five-year to a two-year historical average, lowering downside risk (4Q25 recorded a THB30m negative adjustment). Losses at Chularat Maesot Hospital should narrow from THB40m in 2025, although breakeven may shift to 2027. Chularat Rayong Phase 1 (59 beds) is scheduled for 2H27. We assume EBITDA margin to expand 0.4ppt this year and remain flat in 2027.

Core profit to resume growth in 2026

We cut our core profit forecasts by 7% for 2026 and 10% for 2027 to reflect more conservative revenue and margin assumptions. We expect 2026 core profit to grow 8% to THB1.01b. 2027 earnings should rise 7%, pressured by costs related to the new Rayong hospital. 1Q26 QTD revenue grew 4% y-y, while lower SG&A and THB12m tax benefits should keep 1Q26 profit broadly flat both q-q and y-y.

BUY on resilient earnings and 5-6% yield

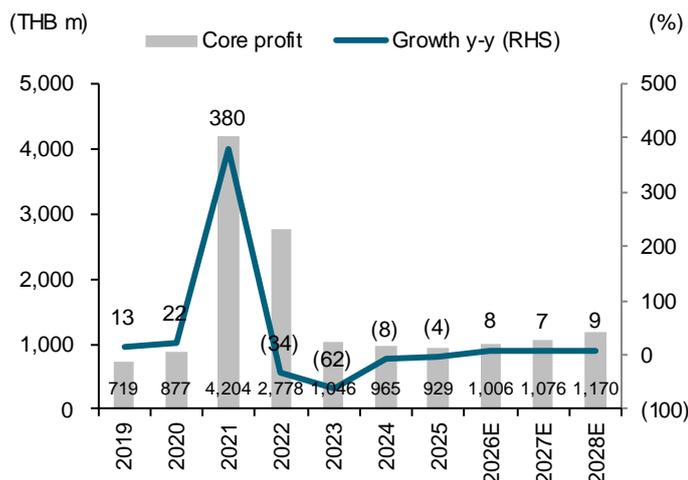

We maintain BUY with a revised DCF-based TP of THB2.02 (from THB2.18), equivalent to 22x 2026E P/E (c-0.25SD). The stock currently trades at 16x 2026E P/E (c-0.75SD) and offers an attractive 5-6% dividend yield. CHG has limited Middle East exposure relative to peers, with foreign revenue at only 4%. SSO-related headwinds are moderating, while rising cash patient intensity should further support margins.

Economic news

- Budget disbursement to be expedited BANGKOK POST: Caretaker finance minister Ekniti Nitithanprapas has instructed government agencies and state enterprises to accelerate budget disbursement to help support the economy during this difficult period. Mr Ekniti said he instructed the Comptroller-General's Department to look into problems related to certain budget disbursements that remain stalled and cannot be released as planned. In the fourth quarter of last year, investment budget disbursement by the government and state enterprises expanded by 13% year-on-year. Together with the Quick Big Win measures, this helped the economy grow by 2.5% in the fourth quarter. In related news, the Office of Small and Medium Enterprises Promotion (Osmep) on Wednesday announced support measures worth 1.2 billion baht, offering loans at 1% interest with a repayment period of up to five years. Napinthorn Srisanpang, the caretaker minister of the Prime Minister's Office who oversees Osmep, said the government expects the loan scheme to serve as an engine to boost liquidity and create a competitive edge for entrepreneurs to adapt by upgrading technology and innovation in a timely manner. The scheme is divided into three target groups. The first group called "Transformation SME" offers loans of up to 10 million baht for entrepreneurs seeking to upgrade or develop their businesses, enabling them to modernise operations and align with changing global market demand. The second group dubbed "Enhancement SME" provides loans of 10-15 million baht for entrepreneurs seeking funding to accelerate growth and strengthen competitiveness across all dimensions, supporting rapid expansion and long-term business sustainability. The third group targets tourism and tourism-related businesses, offering loans of up to 2 million baht for operators to lift liquidity and working capital.
- Proposed Travel Rule ruffles some feathers BANGKOK POST: Digital asset business operators are warning the newly proposed Travel Rule should not be overly restrictive or it could unintentionally undermine the open and decentralised nature of blockchain networks, stifling innovation. While the new rule can help improve traceability and accountability for digital assets in Thailand, where mule accounts and financial fraud have become prominent, the details of Implementation will prove crucial, said the Thai unit of the world's largest cryptocurrency exchange Binance. "While many countries are adopting the Travel Rule, the exact design varies widely across jurisdictions. If the framework becomes overly restrictive, this may unintentionally undermine the open and decentralised nature of blockchain networks," Nirun Fuwattananukul, chief executive of Binance TH by Gulf Binance, told the Bangkok Post. The goal should be a balanced framework that strengthens compliance without stifling innovation, he said. Many leading jurisdictions have adopted risk-based approaches that focus compliance efforts where risks are highest, while still allowing the technology to function as intended, said Mr Nirun.
- Thai oil fund spending B1 billion a day on subsidies BANGKOK POST: The Thai government is widening efforts to curb demand for fuel, as it burns through cash fighting to keep domestic diesel prices artificially low amid surging global energy costs. The state-run Oil Fuel Fund, which is now being used to subsidise diesel, is now losing more than 1 billion baht a day, acting Energy Minister Auttapol Rerkpiboon told the broadcaster MCOT on Wednesday. The government estimates accumulated losses may reach 10 billion baht by March 18, according to cabinet documents released on Tuesday. "The government will reassess the situation, taking into account the fund's position and global prices, to determine the most appropriate next steps," Mr Auttapol said. But it will continue to subsidise fuel for now, he added, noting that the fund ran up losses of up to 120 billion baht during the early stages of the Russia-Ukraine war and eventually managed to get back into the black.
- Oil jumps, stocks drop as war keeps markets on edge BANGKOK POST: Oil prices rallied and equities mostly dropped on Wednesday as traders assessed the latest developments affecting global markets as a result of the Middle East war. Crude futures fluctuated between gains of around two and six percent as the release of oil reserves by some countries helped to offset news of attacks on commercial ships in the Gulf. "Oil prices remain volatile and risk sentiment fragile and trading is on the headlines and rapidly evolving conflict in the Middle East," noted Neil Wilson, UK investment strategist at Saxo bank. Europe's leading stock markets retreated close to one percent nearing the halfway stage, after Asian indices mostly closed lower. However, Tokyo and Seoul, which have seen the widest swings since the crisis unfolded, both finished more than one percent higher.
- Thai exporters on alert after cargo ship attack BANGKOK POST: Thai exporters are advised to exercise caution after a Thai cargo ship was attacked near the Strait of Hormuz, while delays could put perishable goods at risk, the Thai National Shippers' Council (TNSC) said on Wednesday. The overall impact of the Mideast war on Thai exports to the region should remain limited, as it accounts for only about 5% of total shipments, mainly food products such as rice and farm goods, said TNSC chairman Thanakorn Kasetsuwan. "The council will continue to closely monitor the situation in the Middle East and hold discussions on developments while coordinating closely with government agencies," Mr Thanakorn said. He acknowledged early signs of disruption to transport routes, raising concerns for perishable items including meat, fruit and vegetables, which could spoil if deliveries are held up. Exporters may face higher costs and possible revenue losses, prompting calls for government support. For shipments currently stranded in the Persian Gulf region and the Strait of Hormuz, the council outlined possible solutions.

- Thai economic growth seen uneven, below potential: central bank BANGKOK POST: Thailand's economy is projected to grow below its potential and unevenly across sectors, the minutes of the Bank of Thailand's (BoT) Feb 25 policy meeting showed on Wednesday. At the meeting, the Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) unexpectedly cut the one-day repurchase rate by 25 basis points to 1.00%, to support growth. Manufacturing and tourism competitiveness were declining, the minutes said. The committee was concerned by the baht's misalignment with economic fundamentals. It said a policy rate of 1.00% was sufficiently accommodative and consistent with the outlook. Growth is expected to be about 2% this year, although BoT Governor Vitai Ratanakorn has said he is aiming for as high as 2.7%. On March 4, Mr Vitai said growth could drop by 0.1 to 0.2 percentage points in 2026 due to conflict in the Middle East, and said policy adjustments and additional financial measures could be rolled out as needed. Amonthep Chawla, chief economist with the research centre of CIMB Thai Bank, has warned that Thailand is at risk of stagflation as oil prices skyrocket during the Middle East conflict, and the Thai economy could experience quarter-on-quarter contractions in the first half of this year. Southeast Asia's second-largest economy, which has lagged regional peers since the coronavirus 2019 (Covid-19) pandemic, expanded 2.4% last year.

Corporate news

- Thai Airways to raise ticket prices by 10-15% BANGKOK POST: Thai Airways International will raise ticket prices by 10% to 15% to offset surging fuel costs as the carrier grapples with “overwhelming” demand from customers shifting travel plans from the Middle East to Europe, said chief financial officer Cherdchom Thetsathirasak. Most of the flag carrier's flights to Europe this month reached about 90% of seat capacity, Ms Cherdchom said in an investor video conference on Wednesday. THAI has room to raise the fuel surcharge further if oil prices continue to climb, she said. “Passengers planning to travel should secure their tickets as soon as possible before fares rise further,” she said. “Over the next two weeks, tickets will be extremely limited across both European routes and other destinations.” Airlines globally are under mounting pressure from higher jet fuel prices, one of the industry's largest operating costs, as crude oil remains volatile amid the Middle East conflict, which is threatening supply. Carriers have responded by raising fares and fuel surcharges, testing travelers' willingness to absorb higher ticket prices even as international travel demand remains resilient. It's too early to give an outlook for second-quarter passenger demand because of the volatile situation in the Middle East, she said. THAI posted a full-year net profit of 30.9 billion baht in 2025, reversing a net loss of 26.9 billion a year earlier. Revenue rose 1.3% to 190 billion baht, indicating a more gradual recovery from court-supervised debt restructuring initiated during the pandemic.
